FOREWORD

Of life at the high school, or joy and of fun,
The following pages will tell;
And of many a joke and of many a pun,
You will here find a brilliant pell-mell.

Snapshots, and pictures, and stories, and rhymes,
Will speak of your study and strife;
Will speak of your friends and of the good times,
And the pleasures of high school life.

And in later days, when this book you find,
There will grow in your bosom a sigh,
And a feeling of joy when the pages remind
Of the glorious days at Old High.

Harriet Solomon

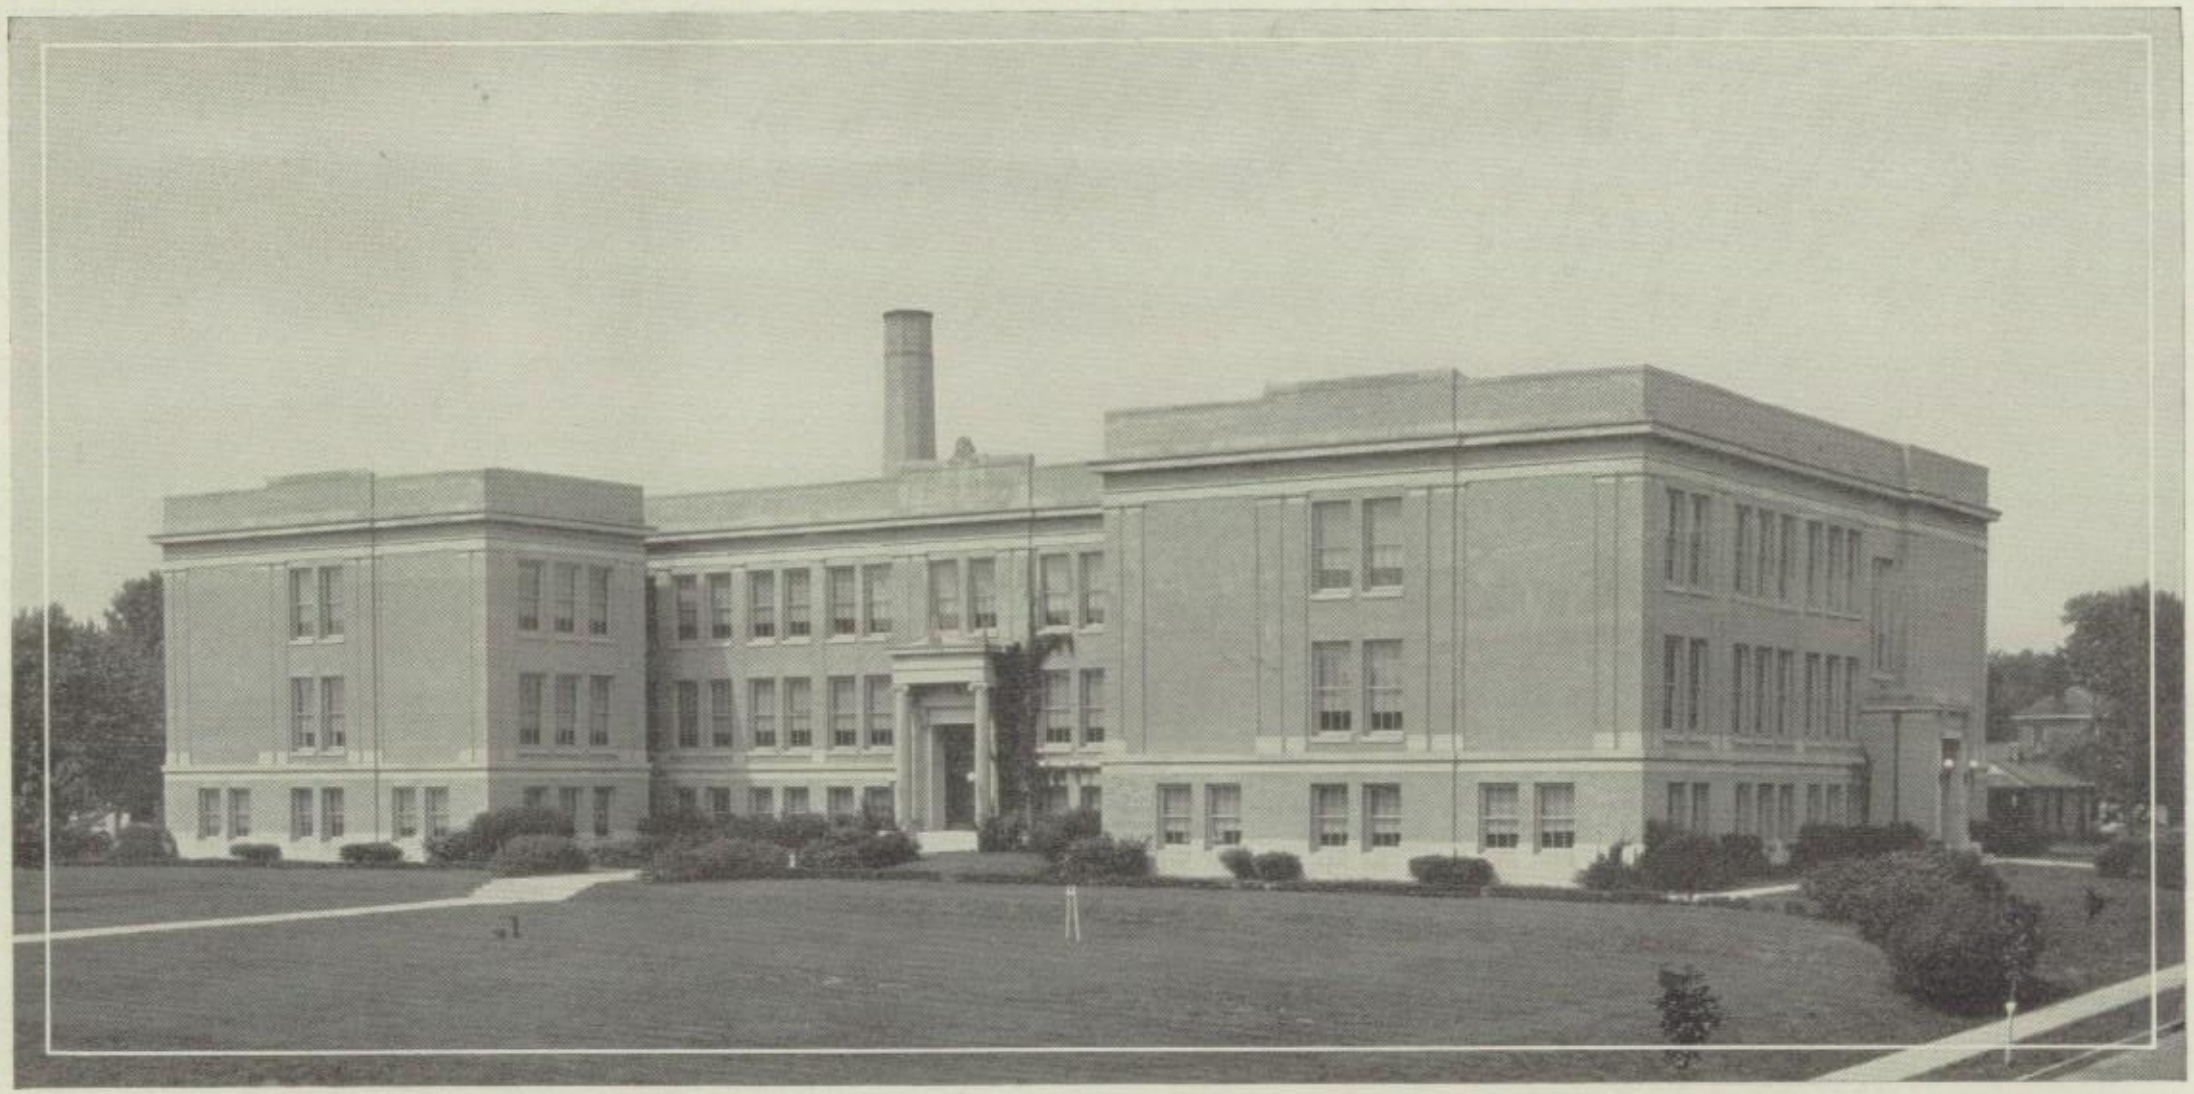
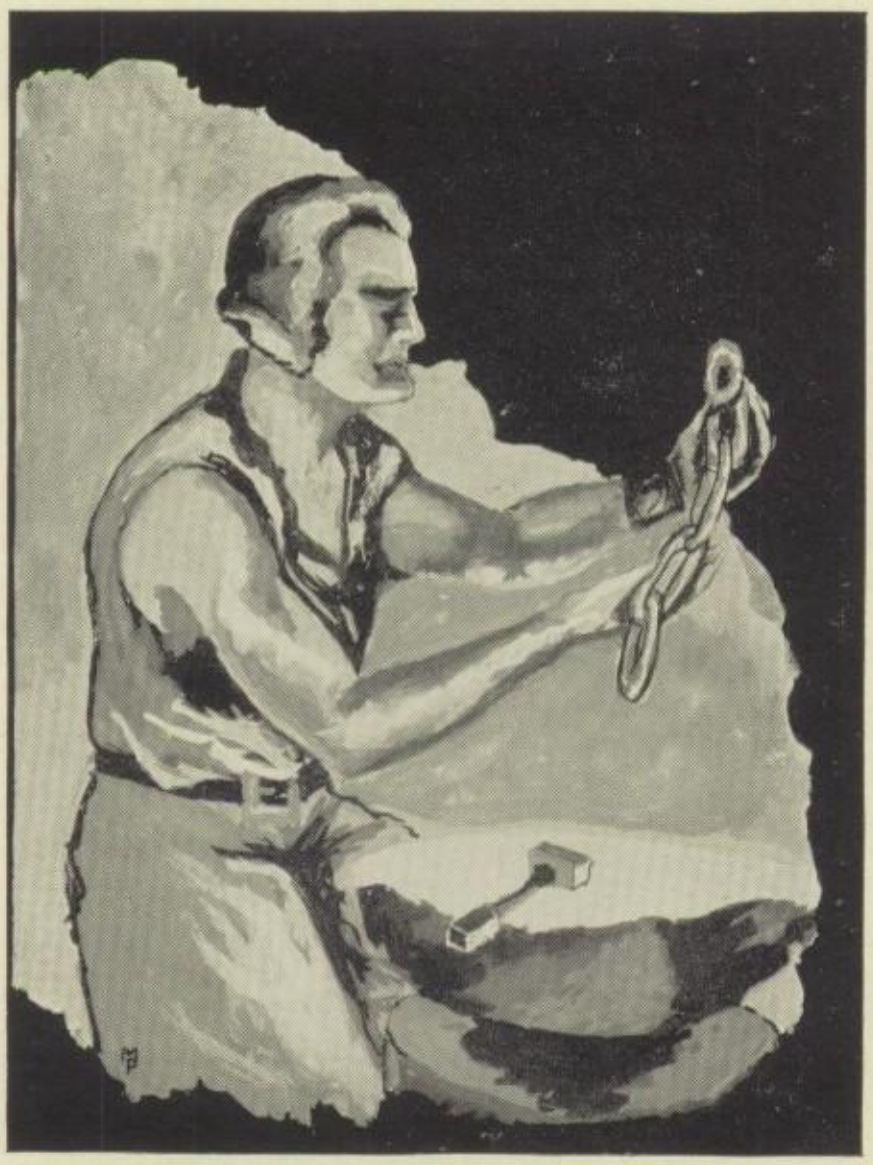
School Life

Advertisements



Much service have you done us, School.
Three years have you sheltered us.
Those within by precept and rule
Guided us. You, though an inanimate thing
Of stone, symbolize our striving.
You, upright, stately in your simplicity,
Symbolize a gift to us
Of courage, facing wind and weather.

Classes



Seniors

ELMER ALBERTS

Beware! I may do something sensational.

EDITH ANDREWS

Kind o' quiet, smiling too,
Kind o' girl you're glad you knew.

JOHN AZINGER

Men of few words are the best men.

WALTER BARNES

I never let studies interfere with my school duties.

ELLA BEAIRD

It's nice to be natural, if you're naturally nice.

ELIZABETH BISPING

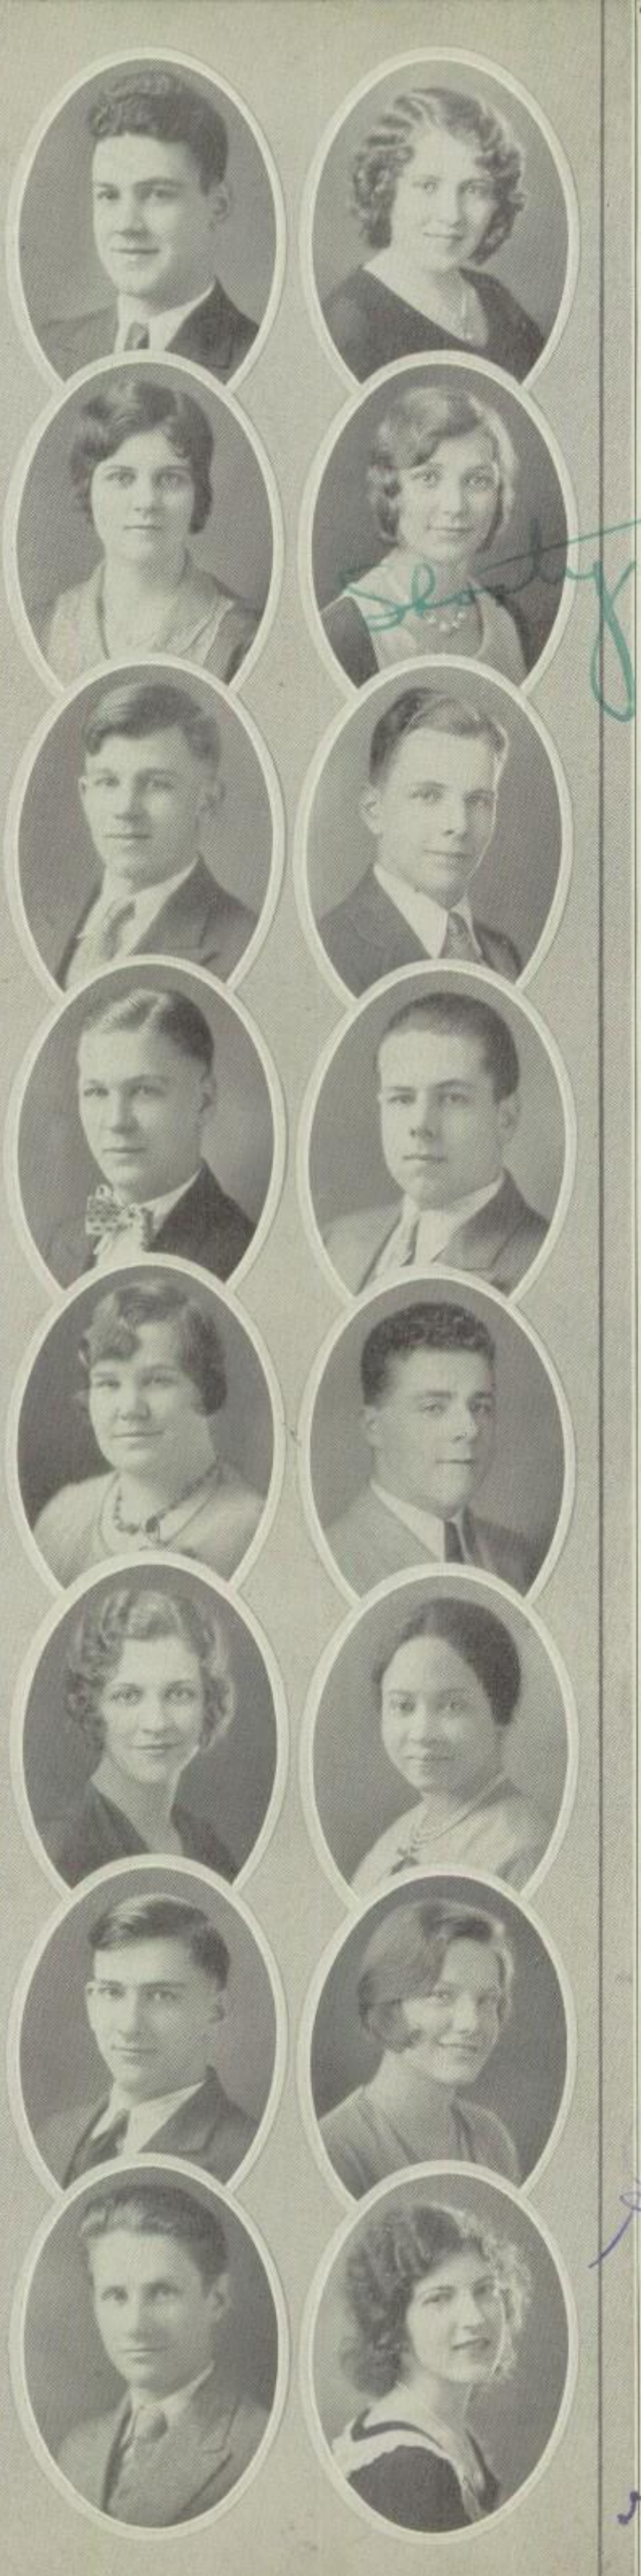
She has talents, wisdom, energy and charm unbounded,
And over all these loveliness.

HERMAN BLONDET

Master of the art of keeping silence.

WINFIELD BOONE

Bang! Bang! goes the gun
Of Winfield, Daniel's son.



MARGARET ANDERSON

Peppy! full of fun—that's our yell leader.

PAULINE ATTERBERG

I'm little, I'm wise,
I'm a terror for my size.

EDWIN BANGHART

He did nothing in particular and did it well.

ROBERT BARTHOLOMEW

To be a well-favored man is the gift of fortune,
But to get chemistry comes by nature.

FRANCIS BEVERING

Wouldn't I make a good villain?
It wouldn't take nerve for me to kill 'em.

CLAUDIA BLAND

Though quiet by nature, she's brimful of fun and happy smiles.

GEORGIANNA BLOOM

Able to learn a volume a minute, and oh! how she can rattle a typewriter.

MARGARET BOYD

A good cure for the blues

RUTH BRINKER

She's a perfect artist at falling in love.
Her poems reflect whom she's thinking of.

NINA BROWN

May she never change, only in name.

THEODORE BUERKLIN

Mild, innocent and quiet,
We're sure he'd never start a riot.

OLIVER CASEY

Napoleon was small — so am I.

DAVE COCHRANE

He doesn't seem to mind
If his lessons are behind.

WINIFRED COLLINS

This girl has brains, we must confess;
She often helps us out of a mess.

JACK CONNOR

I never trouble trouble,
Until trouble troubles me.

JOE CRAIG

Worry and I have never met.

CHESTER BROWN

And we gazed and still the wonder grew;
Could one head carry all he knew?

CARL BUERKLIN

You may not believe it, but I'm naturally bashful.

GEORGE BURNS

Keep still, kid, I think
I'm going to say something.

ROBERTA CLARK

Three in one — dependable, capable, and sweet.

MARGARET COCKRELL

She would rather talk with a man than an angel any day.

SAM COLLISON

He's not lazy — just doesn't like to work.

GERALD COOK

Blessed is the man who invented sleep.

EULA CRAMER

Her main endeavor is to please,
Next to that — a life of ease.

MARY MARGARET DEAN

When black-eyed Mary
tires of a boy,
She throws him away
as she would a toy.

ROY DICKENSON

Mysterious and of manner mild,
The look in his eyes a little wild.
Ramon Navarro — self-styled.

JOHN DOBBS

A lion among the ladies is the most dreadful thing!

VIOLET DOSS

She is one who does what she should,
Always kind and always good.

GERTRUDE DUNN

She looks quiet, safe and sane . . . .
So does gunpowder.

FRANCIS FARNSWORTH

I was never less alone than when by myself.

MARGARET FISH

Let it rain, let it shine,
she never cares.
"Studies are mere trifles," she freely declares.

LOUISE FLOWERS

She has no trait more striking
Than her common sense.

CARL DENNIS

All great men are dying,
and I don't feel well myself.

MAURINE DILLINGER

In doing favors Maurine excells.
A girl so kind-hearted will ever do well.

ELIZABETH DOMMERMAN

She is quiet, but always cheerful.

LOUISE DOWNING

Her friends are many;
Her foes—are there any?

GENE EYMAN

He couldn't be good if he would;
He wouldn't be good if he could.

HARRY FERRIS

He has sighed to many,
though he loves but one.

NORMA FLOWERS

Cupid drew his bow and
let fly the dart;
Now she is wearing a pin
o'er her heart.

ERNEST FOX

If he worried you'd never know it.

THELMA FOX

Always merry, never glum,
Makes a bright and cheerful chum.

"Thelma"

OTIS GILPIN

Everything comes to those who wait,
If they work while they wait.

ANNA HAASE

When assembly is over, Anna will shout,
"Say, does anyone know what it was all about?"

"Anna"

CHESTER HARTLEY

A pretty girl, a gallon of gas,
Four good tires — what more could I ask?
Nothing but more gas.

"Chet"

ARLA HEDRICK

One of the inseparable.

Arla

IRVINA HENTZEL

My idea of an agreeable person is one who agrees with me.

Irvina

Graham

GRAHAM HILL

All great men are misunderstood.

LOGAN HUISKAMP

The man behind the team

EVERETT GILBERT

Loyal and always to be depended upon.

ORRIN GRAY

If I had an audience, I'd make you shudder at my eloquence.

Orrin

DORIS HARDY

And dance — I'll tell the world!

"Do"

AUDREY HAYDEN

She silently goes about her business.

Audrey

AUDREY HEDRICK

The other one of the inseparable.

Doris

DORIS HIGHAM

It's easier to look wise than to talk wisdom.

CATHERINE HOFFMAN

I might be better if I would,
But it's very lonesome being good.

Catherine Huffman

NINA HULL

She is the girl who does her own thinking.

Nina

MARIAN HUTCHISON

She is so quiet and petite.
No better friend could any meet.

JOHN N. IRWIN II

His name has gone before him,
But he can do plenty things himself

MARIE JOHNSON

Charming manner, winning way,
She's pleasant and sweet the livelong day.

JACK KEARNS

Silence is golden and I'm a millionaire.

MADELENE KNIES

You can have more fun with her in a minute than you can have with most girls in an hour.

GRACE KOLLMYER

Pretty to walk with, witty to talk with and pleasant to think about.

KARLTON LAISLE

A fighting member of our team,
All his plays were square and clean.

VERA LANGLEY

Oh, Goldie Locks, where are the three bears?

CLATTIE IRVIN

Undisturbed by what men say,
She goes now as yesterday.

GEORGE JOHNSON

Columbus took a chance.
Why don't you?

EUNICE JONES

A likable miss, quiet and unassuming.

VERNA KLANN

Operettas, jazz, sports, and studies,
Our editor likes them all.

BETTY KOCH

She giggles if it's funny,
And one may truly say
That if it isn't funny
She giggles anyway.

HARRY KOLLMYER

He may "tumble" into fame.

REED LAMB

You can't corner a square man.

ALBERTA LAMBERT

Quiet lass, but there are few
Who know the treasures hid in you.

MARJORIE LA PORTE

She is a maid of artless grace,
Gentle of form and fair of face.

FRANK McCLINTHEN

Between his girl, his school, his work,
He has no time to want to shirk.

FRANK MECUM

What's all the hustle, haste, and hurry?
Be like me—I never worry.

DOROTHY MEISTER

As winsome and gay a lass as ever powdered her nose before the trophy case.

BERNICE MILLS

Like a lark on the wing,
This fair maid can sing.

GLADINE MURRAY

Pink rose buds in a frame of old lavender lace.

FRANK NELSON

A hopeless victim of radio mania; yet, strange to say, he is never behind in his studies.

NAOMI OLIVER

Not over bold nor shy,
But sweet and likeable.

LOUISE LENNON

Her school career has moved at a "Charleston" tempo.

JOHN MAAS

No woman shall come within a mile of my court.

HERMAN MEINBERG

A mighty atom aspires to stir the nation,
By making some grand oration.

JANE MEYLING

Always talking and ever gay,
Not now and then, but every day.

JACK MULLIKIN

As good as he looks.

CURTIS NELSON

I know I will do something great,
But what it is I cannot state.

MARY NELSON

A delightful mixture of tart and sweet.

MARGARET PATTERSON

A bright, vivacious miss,
Witty and full of pep.

AGNES PEASE

Gaze into her eyes and she's an angel,
Gaze a little longer and she's an imp.

MILDRED PETERSON

Art I love, and next to art, Johnny.

JANETTE PILES

A sober maid with solemn face.

MARGUERITE REYNOLDS

She works hard, for she
A stenographer is going to be.

JOHN ROGERS

"440" or bust!!

CHARLES SCHULZ

That he's in love, we can each tell,
For when we tease, he colors up well.

DOROTHY SEABOLD

Dorothy was very quiet,
Dorothy was very shy,
But she'll make a good partner bye and bye.

HAROLD SEMPLE

I am undecided yet as to whether I would rather be President of the United States or the villian in a comic opera.

ALBERTA PETERSON

She is a damsel of delicate mold,
With hair like sunshine and heart of gold.

ROBERT PETERSON

The farmer in the dell.

SINTON RENAUD

You can tell the wheels in his head
By the spokes that come out of his mouth.

JACK ROEHRIG

Bewitch the ladies? Well, I guess,
And a great athlete for K. H. S.

MARCIA SCHNEIDER

Oceans of good nature,
Loads of common sense.

BEATRICE SCHWARZ

The best of things are done up in small packages.

GEORGE SEABOLD

Let me be no assistant to a state,
But keep a farm.

AUDRA SMITH

Modesty and sincerity makes you of sterling worth.

"Dot"

DOROTHY SMITH

Be good, sweet maiden,
Let those who will be naughty!

BUELL SMITH

Ride, and the girls ride with you;
Walk, and you walk alone

B. Smith

PAUL STODDART

He hasn't been with us a very long time,
But so far, we certainly like him fine.

Paul

"Les"

LESLIE TUTTLE

Altho' he may look sort of meek,
He's really a kind of Rudy, a sheik.

JACOB VOSS

I am not a politician, and my other habits are good.

CHLOE WASHBURN

Sweet as a winsome primrose.

Chloe

HELEN WESCOTT

It took 1931 years to make a girl like you.

Helen

CLYDE WHITESIDE

He's a cork that can't be kept under many minutes at a time.

Whitie

George Smith

GEORGE SMITH

If God had only let Adam's rib alone.

EUNICE SPURGEON

A few boys, lots of pep
Make cheerful Eunice want to step.

BLANCHE THOMPSON

For she's just the kind whose nature never varies

Blanche Thompson

GERTRUDE VAN AUSDALL

Gentle and true, simple and kind is she.

Gertrude '31

WILLIAM WALKER

An excellent swimmer, an athlete and a good all-round fellow.

Ida Frances

IDA FRANCES WELLS

Quiet, unruffled, always the same,
Like a picture in a frame.

JOSEPH WEYAND

We would not dare to say that he's a lady's man,
But in manly virtue, surpass him if you can.

EDITH WILSON

She's so fine and true.
Sweeter girls than she are few.

Edith Wilson

Ruth M-Wollenweber

RUTH WOLLENWEBER

No one but herself can be her parallel.

LE CRONYN WOOD

Wisdom and wit are hers, but better than these, "pep."

LeCronyn

JANE ZIMMERSCHIED

She hath a singular affliction,
She is called a sensible girl.

Jane

MILDRED KNAPP

She is not dead—the child of our affection—
But gone into that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection
And Christ himself doth rule.

—LONGFELLOW.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President _____ John Irwin
Vice-President _____ Joe Dobson
Secretary-Treasurer _____ Max Thomas

The Student Council is composed of one representative from each Home Room in the school, chosen by the members of the Home Room. The Student Council has accomplished much this year by introducing means of encouraging high scholarship and lowering the rate of absence and tardiness.

In previous years the Councils have not contributed greatly to improvements in the school, but the Student Council this year has certainly made up for what the other Councils did not do. One of the ideas presented to the School Board by the Student Council, and accepted by the Board, was that of giving all members of the Honor Roll one period off every day. This plan met with the approval of the Board and the student body. The student body as a whole ought to offer its congratulations to the Student Council for the work which it has accomplished this year.

CALENDAR

September

1. Labor Day.
2. Behind the bars again—we meet several new jailers.
3. Locker keys. Won't you trade with me? Mine are keen.
5. New honor study halls. Go to study B!
8. No more forging names. Write your own excuses.
16. New plan for activity tickets—$3.00.
19. Judd and Tub look like grizzlies. Wonder who'll win?
22. Tryout for new yell leaders. Yea, Atterburg and Gibson.
25. Hail as big as goose eggs.
    Dramatic Club meeting.
26. We found our pep. First night football game. Fairfield 15, Keokuk 0.
29. Tryouts for first senior high play.

October

1. A radio in school for world series game. Athletics beat the "Cards." G. A. A. moonlight hike.
2. Teachers' Institute. Hurrah! What would we do without teachers, I wonder?
3. Quincy 18, Keokuk 6. Sad, but true. Yeah! Irwin!
4. Did you get your five gallons of gas? Foolish question.
7. Dramatic Club meeting. Hilarious as usual.
9. Heap big pep meeting. Rah! Rah!
10. Lost to Burlington after a great game, 14-6. Record number of knockdowns and dragouts.
13. Honor study halls or nay. It's up to you.
14. Ah! we are learning to dance in the music room.
15. Girls' swimming begins at the Y. M. C. A.
16. Dr. Barker speaks intermittently all day. Plenty of food for thought.
17. Junior party a success.
20. First Student Council meeting. Many sad thoughts of tomorrow.
21. Report cards — the slips went home! Somebody is always taking the joy out of life. G. A. A. soccer tournament. Seniors and juniors fight to a deadlock—no casualties.
22. Mr. Wright posts call for basketball manager.
23. The Bell Ringers rang, but the bonfire had a greater attendance.
24. Game with Centerville. K's attack is crumbled under Centerville's counter attack as they pile up a 20-0 win.
25. G. A. A. party. Some carousal, etc.
28. Three Home Room periods.
29. Pep meeting fifth period for tangle with Mt. Pleasant in the evening. Game was a freezeout, 32-0. "Whose Little Bride Are You?" I'm not sure, but just ask the gentleman to my right.
30. Junior party. Oh, those flighty juniors!

November

3. First basketball practice. Mr. Wright declares prospects to be very bright.
4. Soccer tournament in the gym. Seniors won.
5. Skirt party organized. At last the girls are coming to the front.
8. Sophomore party.
10. Best pep meeting of the year. We buried the hatchet temporarily while Mr. Kerfoot spoke.
11. Madison and Keokuk battle to 6-6.
12. Skirt day. Pat S. comes to Spanish class. Three cheers.
13. Our second vacation—excepting operetta cast.
14. Hamilton won, 19-14.
15. Hon. G. E. Davis, A. B., President Iowa Teachers' Association, Principal K. H. S., etc.

17-18-9. We vote. The "skirts" have it.

18. Fort Madison and Keokuk again today (the second team only), 0-0.
20. Mr. Herby Televox, with his chaperon. Verna Klann, was disappointed — she thought perhaps he'd give a song and dance.
21. "Carrie Comes to College" is a huge success. What nightingales have we!
22. We are hard hit by Washington, 34-36. A grand party and dance, junior and senior.
24. Blue Triangle meeting until 6:15. What's going to happen?
27. The Carthage boys ate too much turkey and left us the wishbone by a 20-6 count.
28. Seniors win class tournament, 2-0.

December

1. Comment staff meeting. We must turn our work in on time!
5. First movies on health.
6. Junior-senior dance. We must do this oftener.
9. Basketball game. A lazily accurate Keokuk squad easily outshot a slow, inaccurate Montrose team, 41-11.
10. Nauvoo, tall, rangy, and slow, was run off the floor by the accurate shots and nice passes of Keokuk, 54-12. The second victory.
11. Mysterious summons to eleventh and Orleans results in big whoopee party by G. A. A. board.
12. G. A. A. party. White elephants and picnic food.
13. Team struts its stuff against Mt. Pleasant, winning 28-12.
18. Rabbit dinner for football fellows. Too had all rabbit lovers can't play football.
19. Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Rang," is very impressive.
17. Three teams of J. C.'s best held Canton to four field goals and four free throws. Keokuk 26, Canton 12.
26. A charity game. Crowd is conspicuous by absence.
31. Basco vs. Keokuk. The first quarter looked bad, but the ending was 41-20.

January

5. As we hadn't been to school since last year, we were glad to come back and renew old acquaintances.
6. Volley ball tournament. Seniors and juniors win.
7. Second term swimming starts. Keokuk's three teams won from Carthage, 30-16.
9. "Androcles and the Lion" in assembly. Poor women-handled Francis.
   Centerville swamped 26-10.
13. Hamilton wanted that game so badly, but it ended 28-13.
15. Mr. Carrell looks for a secretary (commercial department).
16. Madison again tried to overthrow the Purple.
17. Kirksville visited us and wished they hadn't.
19. K. Club initiates twenty-five. No fatalities.
22. L. C. W. hears the pictures are to be taken Monday and changes her mind about wanting a black eye.
    Miss Maxwell's circus.
23. Movies again. B-r-r-r—it's cold!
29. Home declamatory. M. Reynolds, Lois Rovane, and E. Bisping are victors.
30. Registration, sleeping, disorder. Centerville and Keokuk. Logan prefers going "belly buster"; you get there faster.
31. Albia-Keokuk.

February

3. Carthage 12, Keokuk 32. Loge leading Mississippi Valley League.
4. Girls get "K's" for G. A. A.
5. "Big Chief" (not G. E.) in assembly for a dime.
9. Mr. Alias from Mesopotamia.
12. Miss Craig's desert island pantomime.
13. Hannibal bows.
14. Kirksville 50, K. H. S. 18. What an inappropriate valentine.
18. Hamilton bows decidedly.
19. Marquis, the world's magician. Hippiga-Miniga.
20. Madison 7, K. H. S. 25. Nough said!
24. Liz wins state preliminaries.
25. Burlington vs. Keokuk. Heart beats cease and breath suspended during the last quarter of the game, but all's well that ends well—21-23.
26. Miss Loeffler's cabaret.
28. We get nosed out by Quincy 22-18. Madge weeps to think of the tire bill.

March

3. A moonlight hike ends in roasting weiners at fireplace.
5. Burlington 16, K. H. S. 30.
6. Mr. Moriarty, big league ump, spills the dope on the big leagues. Another scalping by K. H. S. Mediapolis didn't have a chance after Keokuk started. The basketball team spent an uplifting night at the poorhouse. In case worse comes to worse, they at least will be familiar with the surroundings.
7. Mt. Pleasant lost, so the team goes to Davenport.
12. Keokuk beats "bye" high school. Mr. Megchelsen's Home Room visits insane asylum. Frank Nelson was injured by one of the inmates. Liz wins sub-district contest over Ft. Madison.
18. Iowa City High School 17, K. H. S. 13—Oh-wa!
19. Puppets.
20. Gym exhibit. Preliminary music contest.
21. Very clever Dramatic Club party.
23. Head-hunters are squelched and Mr. Wright gets a chicken.
27. Dr. Ehinger and his birds. Tryouts for last senior high play.

26-27. Music contest at Madison. Congratulations, Verna, Gladine, and Wilbur.

April

1. Lenore L. and Gertrude D. get up at 6 o'clock to go to St. Louis. April fool!
3. All Comment copy to be in two weeks ago.
4. Keokuk placed sixth in the state track meet.
7. Orchesis initiation. Girls' K Club meeting.
9. District music contest. Wilber Burchett victorious.
10. Faculty play, "Her Step Husband," is a riot. Hard on furniture.
11. Keokuk wins the "Keokuk-Burlington-Fort Madison triangular meet."
13. Basketball "K's" given out. Mr. Wright is again to the fore with a most interesting and amusing oration eulogized by the famous Logan. The male contingent blossoms out in rompers.
17. "Spice of Life" better than ever. The faculty see themselves as others see them.
18. Keokuk defeats ancient rivals at track.
22. Absolutely all copy in.
23. Miss Van's Home Room program and a preview of "Sun Up." Election of May Queen.
24. "Sun Up" an overwhelming success.
25. Drake relays. Placed second—nutzo bad.
29. Madge comes to school — all day!!!

May

2. Invitational track meet at Canton.
9. District track meet at Fairfield.
14. Junior class play.
22. May Fete. Chloe Washburn, May Queen; Senior attendants, Elizabeth Bisping, Verna Klann; Junior attendants, Jean Vath, Lois Fairfax; Sophomore attendants, Eleanor Jacobs, Alice Van Pappelendam.
23. M. V. Conference track meet.
31. Baccalaureate service.

June

2. Junior-Senior prom.
4. Class day.
   Senior picnic.
5. Commencement.

The "Home Room Bulletin," the official administrative organ of the Senior High School, is issued each Monday morning to the Home Rooms. It contains announcements of general interest to the faculty and to the students, recognition of the outstanding achievements of the pupils, and news.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The purpose of the National Honor Society as stated in its Constitution is—"to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students."

To be eligible to membership in this society, a student must be a member of either the junior or the senior class, and must have a scholarship rank in the first fourth of his class. Selection of members in the Chapter is made by the faculty.

QUILL AND SCROLL

President ..... Madelene Knies
Vice-President ..... Margaret Boyd
Secretary ..... Sinton Renaud
Treasurer ..... Ruth Wollenweber

"Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." This is the motto of the Quill and Scroll Society, which is an honorary society for high school journalists. Its aim is to develop journalistic work among the students.

Those wishing to be members of the Quill and Scroll must be of the junior or senior class; they must be in the upper one-third of their class; they must be recommended by the supervisor of journalism; they must have done some outstanding work in writing, editing, or business management; and they must be approved by the national secretary and treasurer of the society.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The former Dramatic Club was reorganized as the "Masques." After a delayed start, a new constitution was adopted and several standing committees were appointed. The two major productions given by the members were a farce comedy, "Whose Little Bride Are You," and the drama, "Sun Up." "Why the Chimes Rang" was also given in combination with the music department, for the Christmas program.

The club was sponsored by Miss Conard and presided over by Walter Wright during the first semester and by Alvin Haisch the second semester.

Creed: To create, maintain, and extend the highest standards of Christian character throughout the school and community.

The Keo-Hi-Y is the oldest social club in good old K. H. S. It is a social and luncheon club which meets at the Y. M. C. A. every Thursday for lunch and a happy time. The advisors are Mr. G. E. Meyer and Mr. E. H. Purcell.

We who have belonged to this bun-throwing society remember the good parties to which every member brought his girl and played the perennial bunco.

BLUE TRIANGLE

President _____ Ruth Brinker
Vice-President _____ Grace Riley
Secretary _____ Alice Johnson
Treasurer _____ Marion Hutchison
Program Chairman _____ Mary E. Linquist

Early in the year, the cabinet of the Blue Triangle met at the Mr. James Huiskamp cottage to plan the program for the year. They met again at the "Y" early in January to make another attempt at organizing. This was a success.

The Blue Triangle clubs of the city brought Marguis, the magician, to Keokuk. They sponsored a luncheon for Mrs. Gilkey, national president of the Y. W. C. A. Miss Grace Stuff led a discussion January 17.

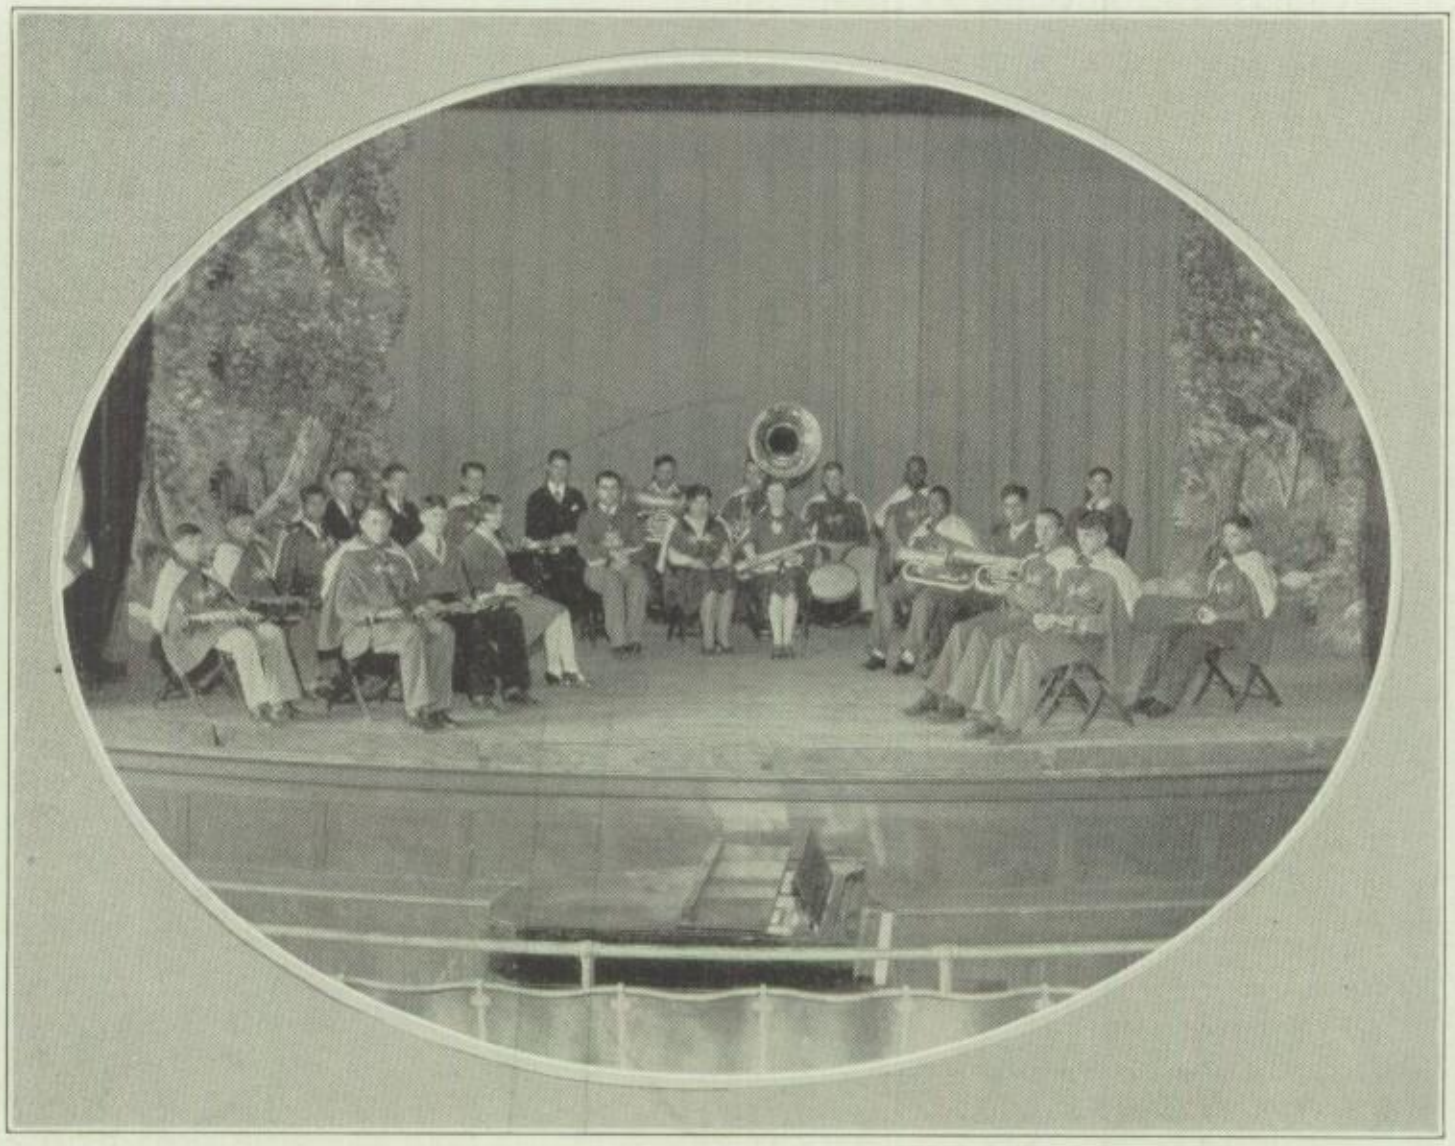
Although many are not aware of the fact, the Blue Triangle Club is a sister club of the Hi-Y, but does not have so large a membership.

Miss Beach, of the Y. W. C. A., is the sponsor, and Miss Meridith is the faculty advisor.

K K K KLUB

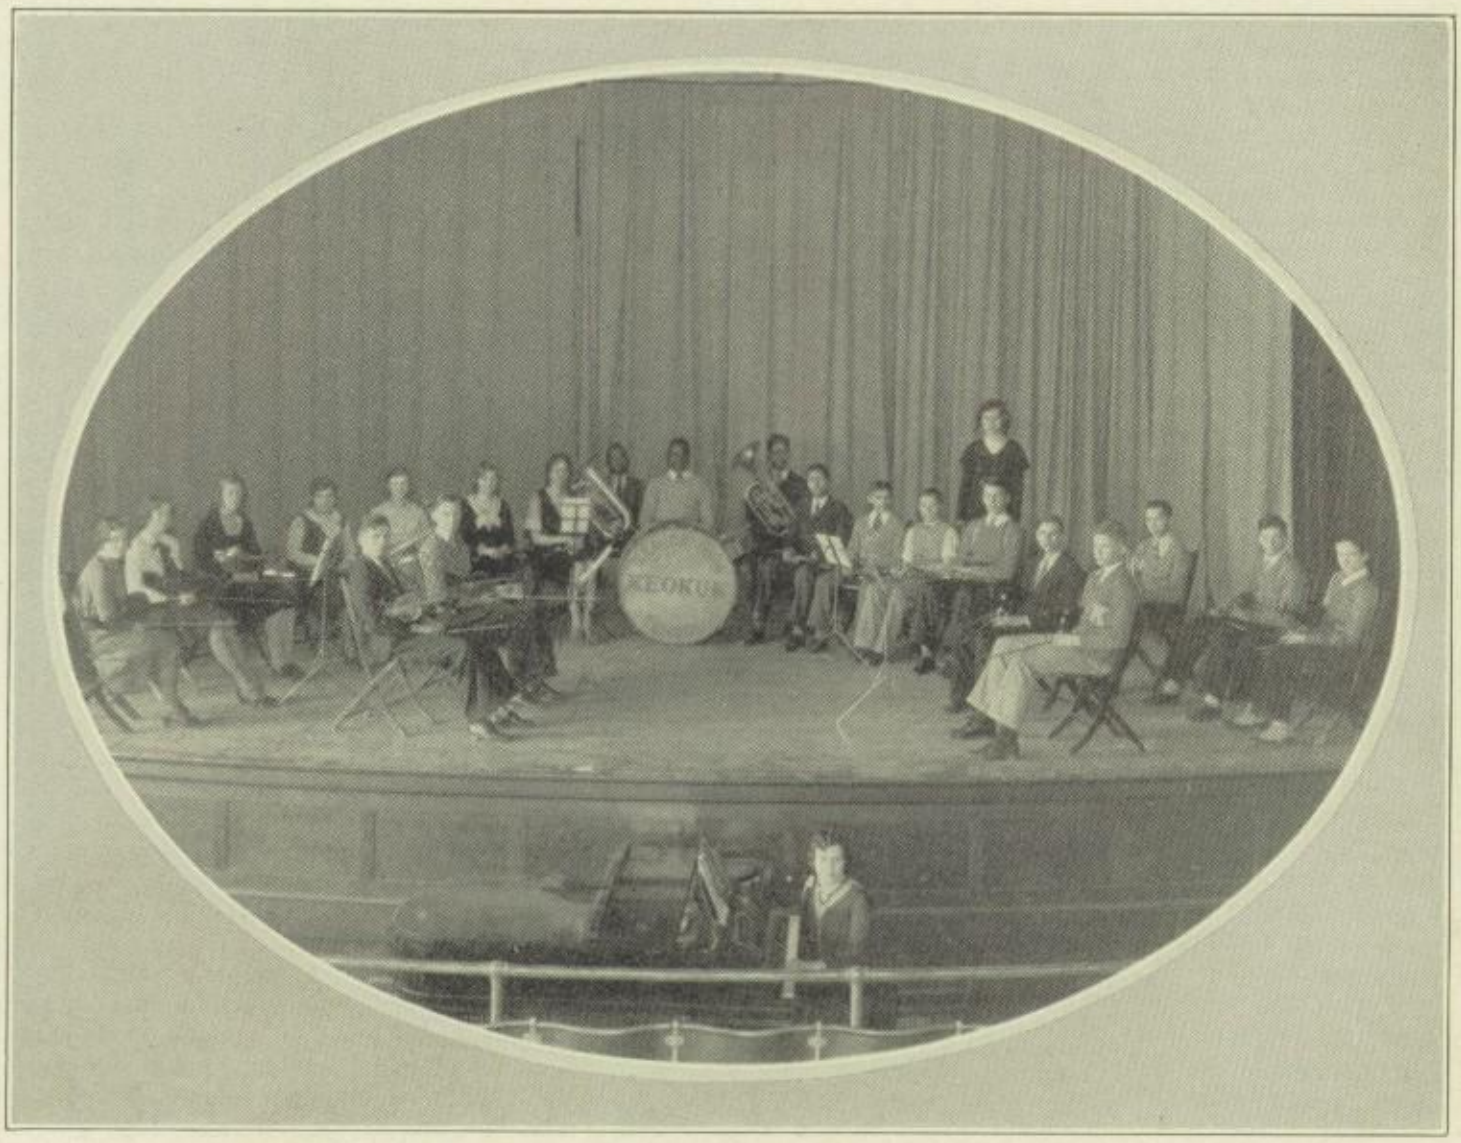
President _____ Georgianna Bloom
Sponsor _____ Miss Conner

The Keokuk Klickety Klick Klub is a social organization made up of members of the commercial classes of the High School. It was organized for the purpose of promoting interest in typewriting and shorthand contests and emphasizing and strengthening the growing importance of this branch of school work.



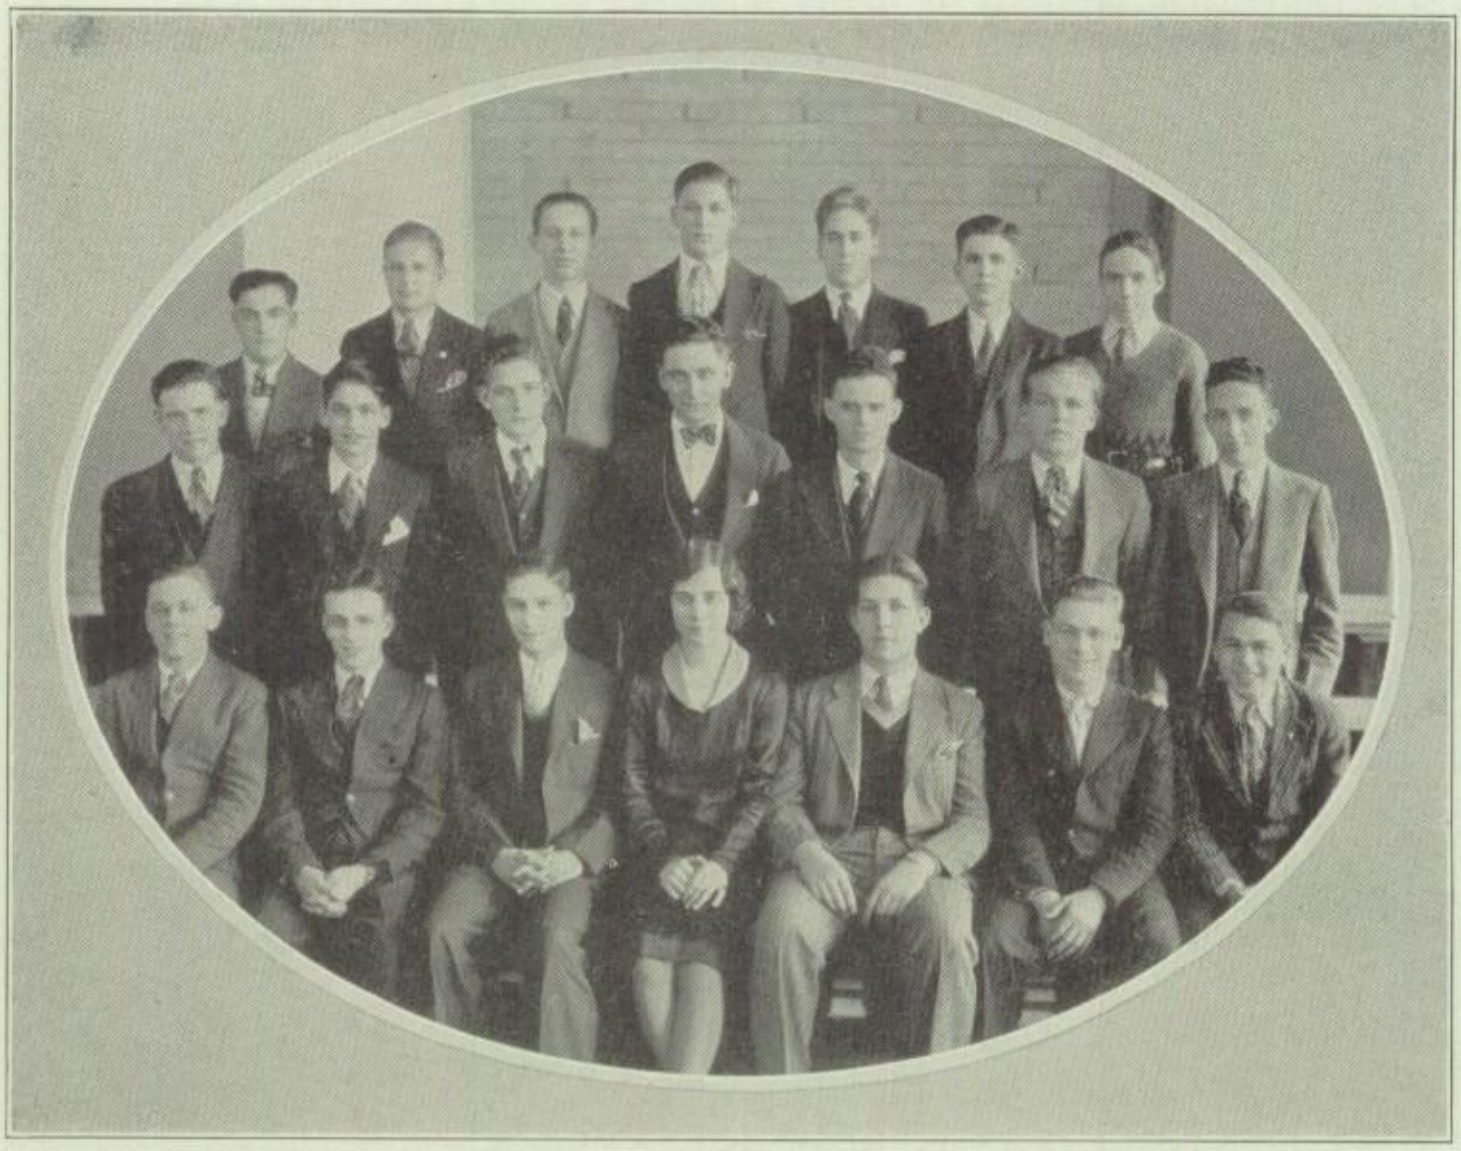
BAND

The band this year, under the direction of Mr. Nickle, played at all of the basketball and football games providing pep and inspiration. All the members were out to the rehearsals, always ready and willing when called upon to play for extra activities. The members of the band displayed a spirit of willingness and loyalty which is a credit to Mr. Nickle and to the school.



ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, conducted by Miss Simmers, furnished music for most of the plays and entertainments given by the school. No matter how short the notice might be, we were never without music. The members of the orchestra should be congratulated on their splendid spirit of cooperation, and, in addition, thanks should be given to Miss Simmers for the time and energy which she devoted to making the orchestra the successful organization which it was.



THE BOYS' CONTEST GLEE CLUB

The Boys' Glee Club, although not so large in numbers as the Girls' Glee Club, has had an equally successful year. The majority of the older and more experienced members graduated last year, but those who were left and the sophomores who graduated from Junior High have developed into a club excelling that of last year. The boys along with the girls sang at various extra-curricular activities, displaying the excellent training and practice received under their director, Miss Simmers.

THE GIRLS' CONTEST GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club this year was so large that it was necessary to divide it into two groups. The thirty girls who were able to pass the requirements most satisfactorily formed the Contest Glee club. This group of girls sang in the various churches of the city, and presented a pre-contest musicale. The entire combined glee clubs gave an operetta, "College Daze," which proved to be a great success. Much credit is due to Miss Simmers, the director, who worked untiringly in preparing the girls for their many successful appearances.

FOOTBALL

A RESUME OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON FOR K. H. S. FOR 1930

On September 21, Keokuk journeyed to Warsaw, Illinois by bus. Keokuk, somewhat confident of winning the victory, was surprised to find the strength of Warsaw of such calibre as to hold them to a nothing to nothing tie.

The following Friday night, Keokuk engaged in the first home game with the strong Fairfield eleven. At times the Keokuk team gave indications of possible future strength, but the final score, 18-0, showed the superiority of Fairfield.

The following week we played at Quincy, Illinois in which game Johnnie Irwin showed some very spectacular running and punting. However, the game was lost by a score of 18-6. This game was the beginning of a series of injuries, which followed the team throughout the season and took heavy toll.

On October 18, Burlington came back for a night encounter on the Keokuk field. Early in the game it appeared as though the teams were pretty evenly matched, but in spite of the heroic fighting, Keokuk lost by a score of 19-6.

On Saturday of the next week we journeyed by bus to Hannibal. The Hannibal team scored in the first few minutes of the play and made the extra point. From that time on the outcome was a sort of toss-up with Keokuk probably having a slight margin. The final score was 7-0, in favor of Hannibal.

Centerville came down the next week with a big squad and a big band, making a very impressive appearance. This team proved to be one of the finest and best coached teams of the season. Centerville won the game by a score of 20-0.

The following week we played Mount Pleasant at Keokuk. Our own team was compelled to go into the game without eight of its first members, who, because of injuries accumulated throughout the season, had to watch the game from the bench. However, the substitutes, although greatly outclassed, put up a game battle and lost, 30-0.

The great game of the season, played on Armistice Day, proved to be a thriller from start to finish. Every boy who entered the game played well. Fort Madison scored early in the first period, but failed to make the extra point. The Keokuk defense suddenly took on strength and in three plays threw Fort Madison for a 28-yard loss. In the third quarter, by supreme fighting and hard tackling, Keokuk was able to get down within scoring distance of the Fort Madison goal. It was here, after three plunges that netted slight gains for Keokuk, that Logan Huiskamp showed great generalship by flipping a short pass over the line to his brother Carl for a touchdown which tied the game. Captain Charles Kamps and Dan Higby were very outstanding in their tackling and blocking.

On Friday of the same week we played Hamilton at Hamilton, Illinois. Keokuk made fourteen points in the first half, and it appeared as though they had the game snugly tucked away. But during the second half Hamilton came back strong and won the game, 19-14.

The next week Washington played at Keokuk, starting part of the reserves at the backfield. However, when Keokuk threatened to score, the whole first outfit was rushed in. It was here that Logan Huiskamp played his first game of the season following his injuries, and sidestepped through the entire team for a touchdown. This score, however, seemed to be incentive to spur the Washington team on and they piled up 33 points before the final whistle blew.

On Thanksgiving day, our old rival, Carthage, met us on our own field. The Keokuk players, evidently trying to make up for the losses of the year and end the season in glory, defeated the Carthage boys by a 20-6 score.

There were probably more injuries and more upsets on the Keokuk team in the year of 1930 than at any time for several years. However, in the face of injuries and ineligibilities, the boys battled against what seemed hopeless odds at times. It may be seen that there were some very outstanding players on the field, as is shown by the representation of K. H. S. in the All-Mississippi Valley Conference.

The Keokuk Senior High School students, heavily supported by the junior high school, gave the football players all the support possible from the bleachers. Even though the team was hopelessly behind in the score, the pep never died down for one minute. We are wondering — why so much increased pep over the year before? The same students, part of the same team and the same coach.

New Bleachers — New Faces!

Once a football fan, always a fan. By erecting new bleachers at the Playground Field, we will be able to keep our old followers and add many more. If our games are played in the daytime, we will save the amount of lighting, probably less disturbance, and put more money in our treasury for the purchase of new football uniforms. Let's push forward for those bleachers and new suits and help build up that old fight in the football teams that spells success.

BASKETBALL

For the third successive year under Coach J. C. Wright, the Keokuk High School basketball team attained an enviable record. By winning twenty-seven out of thirty games, the Keokuk cagers were Mississippi Valley Conference champions, sectional champions, and defeated many strong teams in Iowa, Illinois, and Missouri.

Early in November, seventy-five candidates reported for basketball practice and after a week's practice of fundamentals they were assigned to the different squads. With the addition of boys from the football squad, there were eighty-two who "stuck it out." This itself is a significant fact, showing the interest maintained in basketball, for there were over four times as many candidates out throughout the year as there were regular positions to be filled.

With three games during the second week of December, the high school basketball team started a strenuous campaign which included two or three games every week until March. With Logan Huiskamp and Roehrig playing stellar roles, the Purple marched through what little opposition Montrose had to offer to the tune of 41-11. On the following night Nauvoo was also overwhelmed 54-12. Again on Saturday night, with the fast breaking Purple attack working faultlessly, one of the highly touted Little Six teams, Mt. Pleasant, was crushed 28-13 with the second to fourth teams playing the entire second half.

Mississippi Valley Conference Champions
Won Nine, Lost One

For the previous two years Keokuk has been unable to defeat Quincy, while only winning one game and losing one to Canton. So, with the hopes of an unmarred record, the Purple engaged Canton on December 17, in their first conference game. Alberts played a stellar role by smothering Uppinghouse, the keynote of Canton's attack. This was Keokuk's first conference victory, 26-12.

Christmas week brought no layoff for the team; both the Pirates and Basco fell before the Purple and White. Winning six out of six games Keokuk, for the first time in two years, was undefeated before the holidays.

Resuming their schedule in the new year, Keokuk defeated Carthage 30-16 in a conference game. Next we journeyed to Centerville and ran into a very large team, but by sweeping them off their feet in the first quarter, we emerged victorious, 26-10. On Tuesday night, after a very slow first half, the Purple attack started clicking and Hamilton took the short end of a 28-13 count.

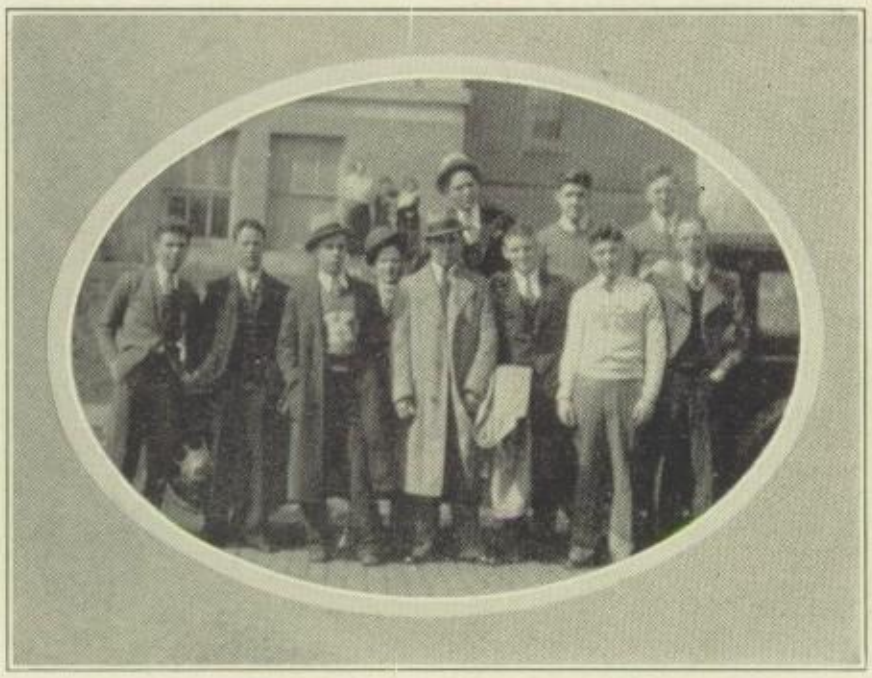
Ty Smith and his prison city outfit proved a more formidable barrier than anticipated. With L. Huiskamp and Roehrig performing brilliantly, Fort Madison was defeated 19-14 in an exceedingly fast game. The next night one of the strongest teams in Missouri, Kirksville, played on our home floor, and before L. Huiskamp started "hitting" in the second half the game was very close, but Keokuk won, 28-17.

At this stage of the schedule some of the most crucial happenings of the season were about to take place. On Friday night Keokuk would meet Quincy and on Saturday they would play Hannibal, who had already defeated Quincy. Both of these were conference games and Keokuk was eager to win. This week marked the close of the semester; Alberts and Roehrig, both regulars, would be lost to the team. Roehrig was one of the fastest men to play on a high school team. He was always fighting, in the game at all times, and will be impossible to replace. Alberts was the only large man on the team and controlled the tip-off from center most of the time. Dropping back to guard he would get the ball off the backboard and smother all following shots.

In the Quincy game Keokuk was trailing by one point at the half, but Captain Huiskamp opened up our attack in the third quarter and we coasted through to win 22-18. Schneiderman, of Quincy, played a fine defensive game and had the Keokuk offensive worried for a time. Hannibal did not furnish as much opposition as had Quincy. Keokuk's unblemished record in the conference was maintained with a 22-12 win.

The record for the first semester was: Won, thirteen; lost, none. Not only Roehrig and Alberts were lost for the season, but also Higby for the next two games. Coach Wright had to work his reserves into the line-up to take the place of the three veterans lost. Centerville, who always played their best against Keokuk, was the first opponent. Coach Wright played the Huiskamp brothers at forwards, Stanton at center, and Thomas and Rogers at guards against them. This team played remarkably well and defeated Centerville 29-17. Albia, a highly rated quintet from central Iowa, failed to stop the Purple the next night. Smith, their forward, was outstanding, but did not receive support from his team mates.



Carthage was pushed deeper into the cellar position in the conference as Keokuk won 32-13. Canton was our next opponent and Keokuk halted a last minute rally to emerge victorious 20-18. A hard driving Fairfield team gave us a hard game, but we triumphed again by 2 points, 29-27.

In the Warsaw game our reserves accomplished our eighteenth straight win. A two-day trip to Hannibal and Kirksville was next on our schedule. The first game, with Hannibal, proved to be another win, but after this an inspired Kirksville team was destined to break our record of nineteen straight victories. Averaging over six feet in height and playing basketball that befits a state champion, Kirksville romped over and around us to hand us the worst defeat in our history, 50-18. Captain Huiskamp was injured in the second half and this materially hindered the Keokuk attack.

Captain Huiskamp was unable to play against Hamilton, but nevertheless, they failed to stop us and Keokuk won, 31-10.

Fort Madison was not only our deadly rival but also one of the two teams that stood between us and an undisputed conference championship. The score, 25-7, showed a fine triumph for Keokuk, with Higby performing brilliantly.

Burlington was turned back 23-21 with L. Huiskamp in his usual brilliant role against them. Quincy handed us our second setback for the season, 22-18, in a poorly played game.

Sectional Champions

After bucking a snow storm all the way to Burlington, we arrived just in time to dress and "take" the floor. Burlington proved poor sportsmen and compelled us to begin the game immediately. However, we secured ample revenge when we eliminated them by the score of 30-16. Our next opponent was Mediapolis, who led at the half, but we entered the finals with a 21-14 win. After battling snowdrifts from Montrose, we sought refuge in the county home at an early hour in the morning, and at five o'clock resumed our journey in a wagon to reach Keokuk safely.

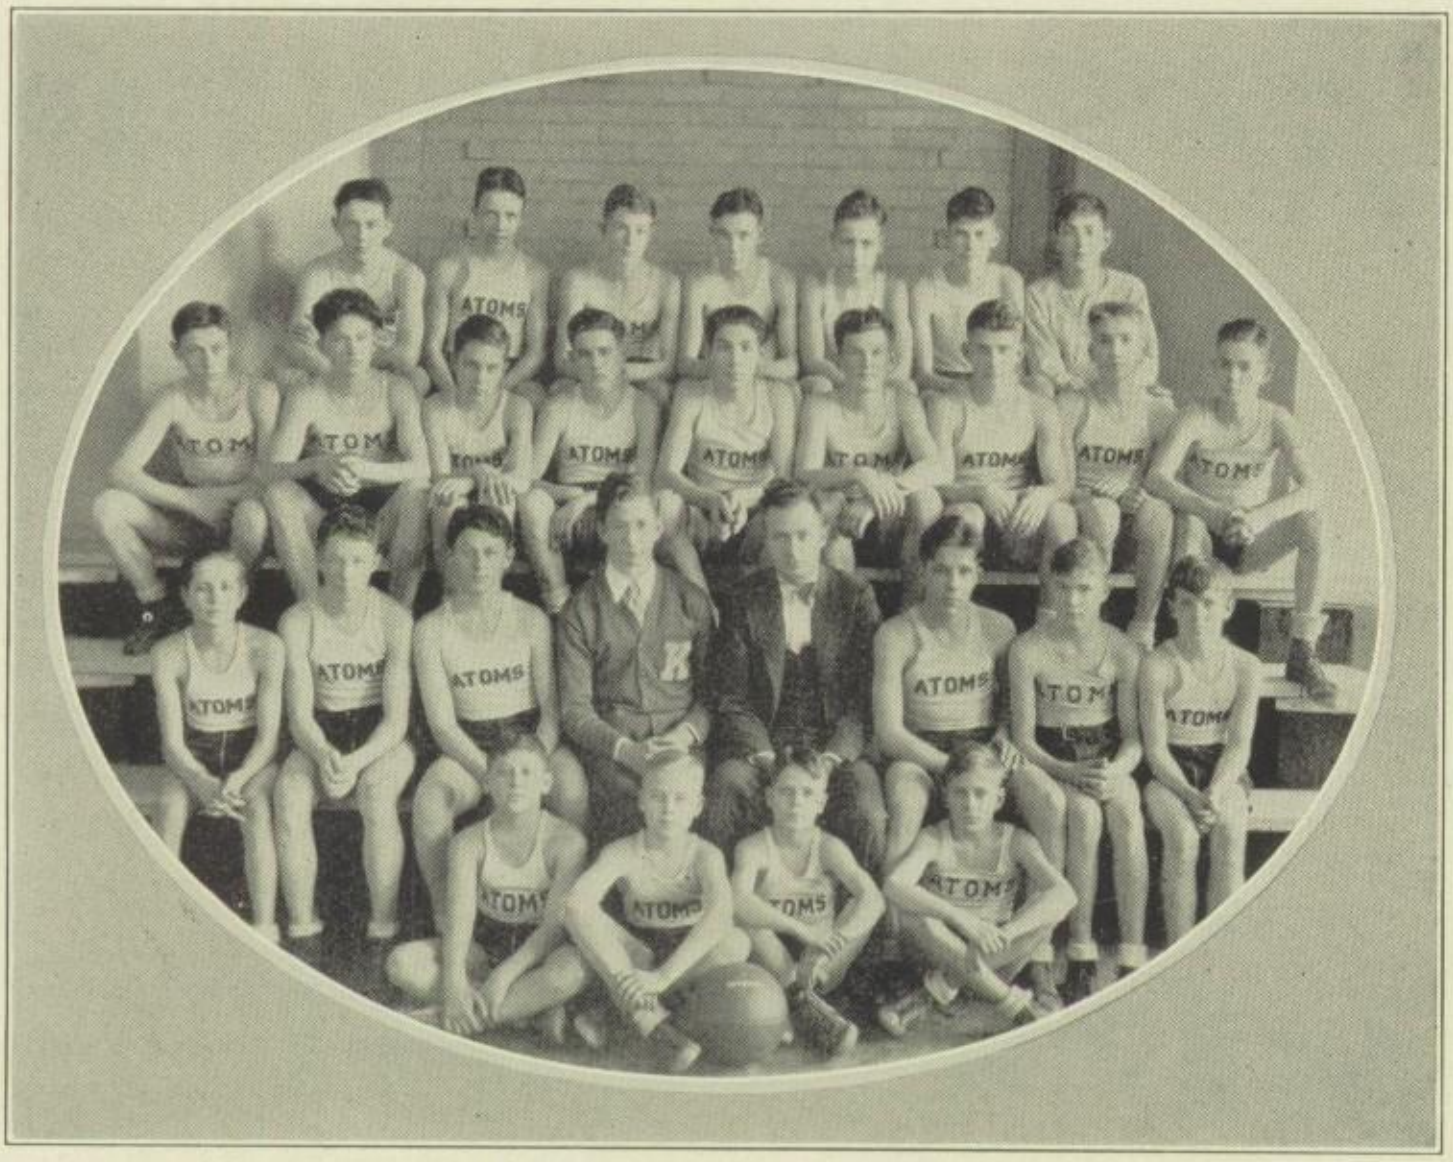
Mt. Pleasant was our opponent in the finals and we earned the right to compete in the district tournament by defeating them 28-13.

We drew a "bye" in the district tournament and played Iowa City in the semi-finals. Playing unique type of basketball, Iowa City defeated a Keokuk team that failed to click during the entire game, 17-13.

In a post-season "charity" game the high school cagers defeated a team of former high school stars that was considerably over rated, 36-14.

Thus ended a season of twenty-seven victories and three defeats. The graduation of Logan Huiskamp marks the last of four great players who have been the mainstays of the Keokuk team for the past three years, namely, Koch, Gammon, and Roehrig. Huiskamp was high point man for the second straight year, making half of the team's total points, and also was selected on the second all-state team for the second year. He was an ideal captain, always striving for the good of the team and never as a one-man player. Our old friend "Artie" Whitely deserves credit for the success of the Keokuk team in the past few years, because he coached many of the present players during his stay in Keokuk. But this does not detract from the brilliant record of Coach J. C. Wright as basketball and track coach of K. H. S. He has worked untiringly with his different squads and has developed team that everyone is proud of. We are confident that, if he returns, Keokuk will again boast a championship team. Although denied entrance in the Little Six, Keokuk defeated three of its teams every time in the five games played against them, and has clearly shown a high type of basketball.

Twelve major letters were awarded. Captain Huiskamp, Rogers, Roehrig, Alberts, Eyman, and Renaud are the seniors who received these. C. Huiskamp, Thomas, Donahue, Higby, Stanton, and Buss are the other letter winners.



ATOMS

Undefeated in seventeen games this season, the Atoms brought their two-year record to thirty-three victories in thirty-four games. Dunn, who broke his ankle in practice, was the only regular lost from the previous year. Galloway, Brinker, Lowe, Jones and Mawer developed teamwork, passing and shooting ability that their undefeated record justifies. Coach Wright knows the value of early training, and his youthful proteges give promise of developing into a championship high school team.

Among the squad of forty boys there were some smaller fellows who were known as the Junior Atoms. They were victorious in every one of their five games played against the local "Y" team.

1930 TRACK

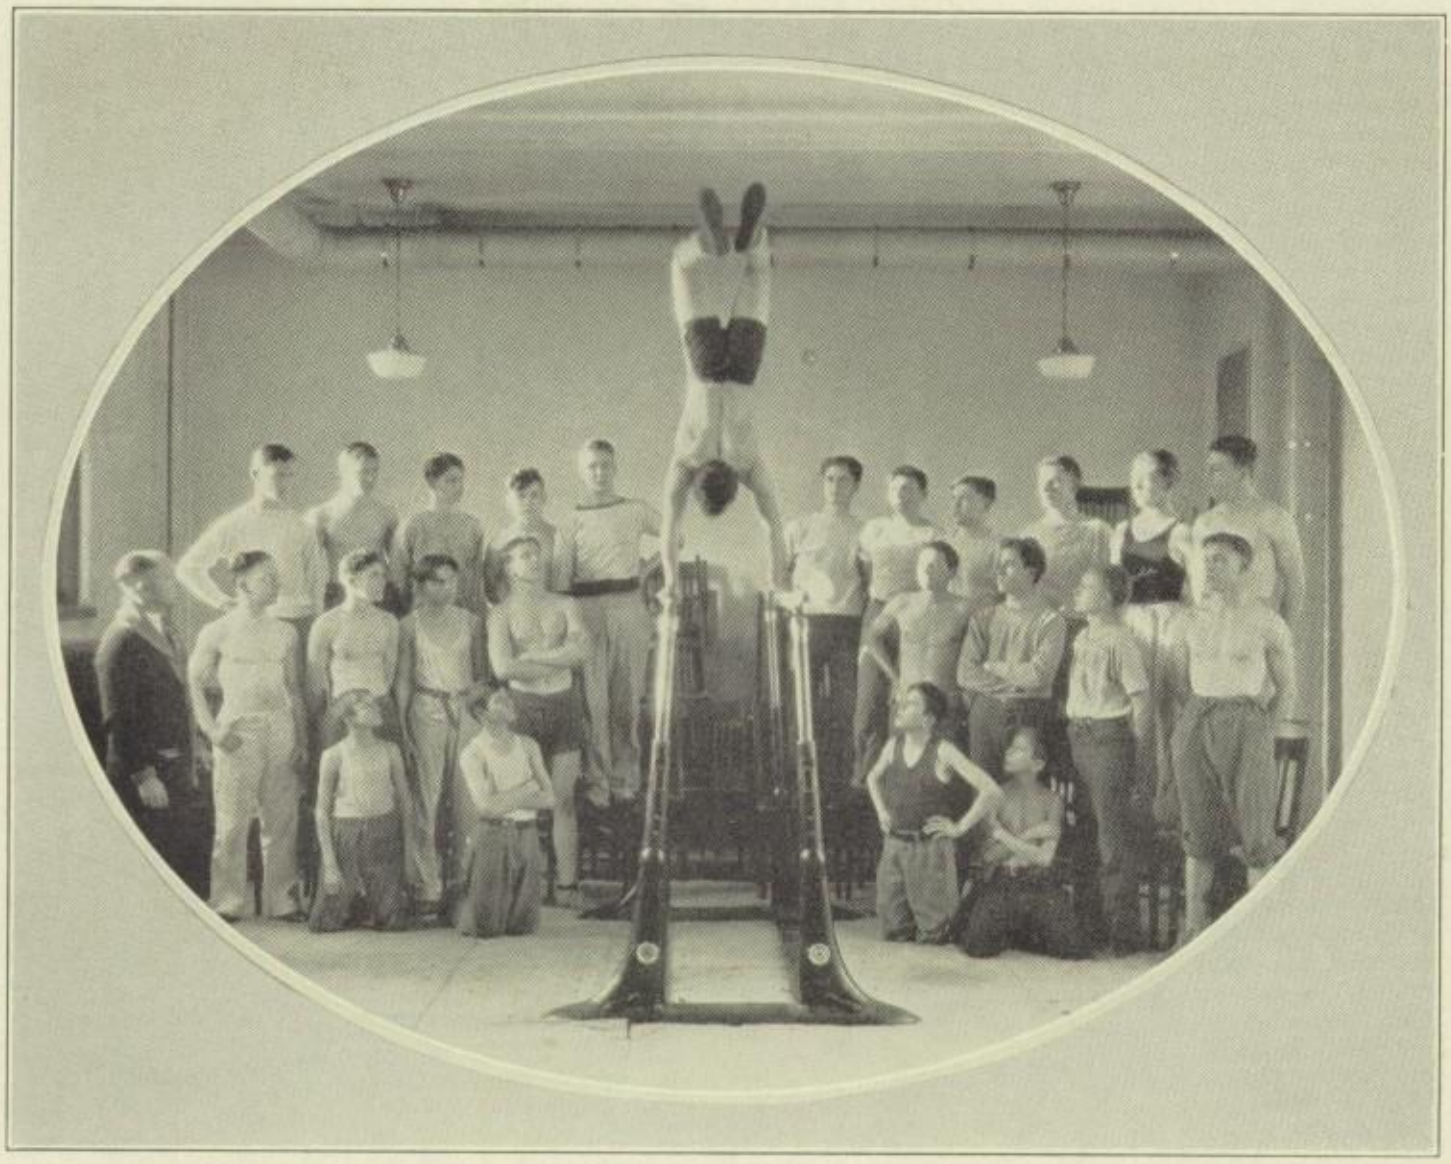
The 1930 track team experienced one of the most successful years in the history of the school, and there are much brighter prospects for the next year. Placing third in the district meet was the high spot of the season.

The annual class meet was won by the seniors, with the sophomores second and the juniors third.

The first meet was a triangular affair at Fort Madison with Fort Madison, Keokuk, and Burlington competing. We placed second in the meet. On the following Saturday, Fort Madison and Quincy invaded our track, but we took first place. The annual telegraphic meet with Creston proved to be a victory for Keokuk.

We placed sixth in the Bloomfield Invitational Meet and on the next Saturday we finished second to Hannibal in the conference meet. Our conference champions were: Gammon, pole vault; Windsor, mile run, and Irwin, in the high and low hurdles.

The district meet was held at Fairfield, Keokuk capturing third place. We were represented in the state meet, but failed to place.

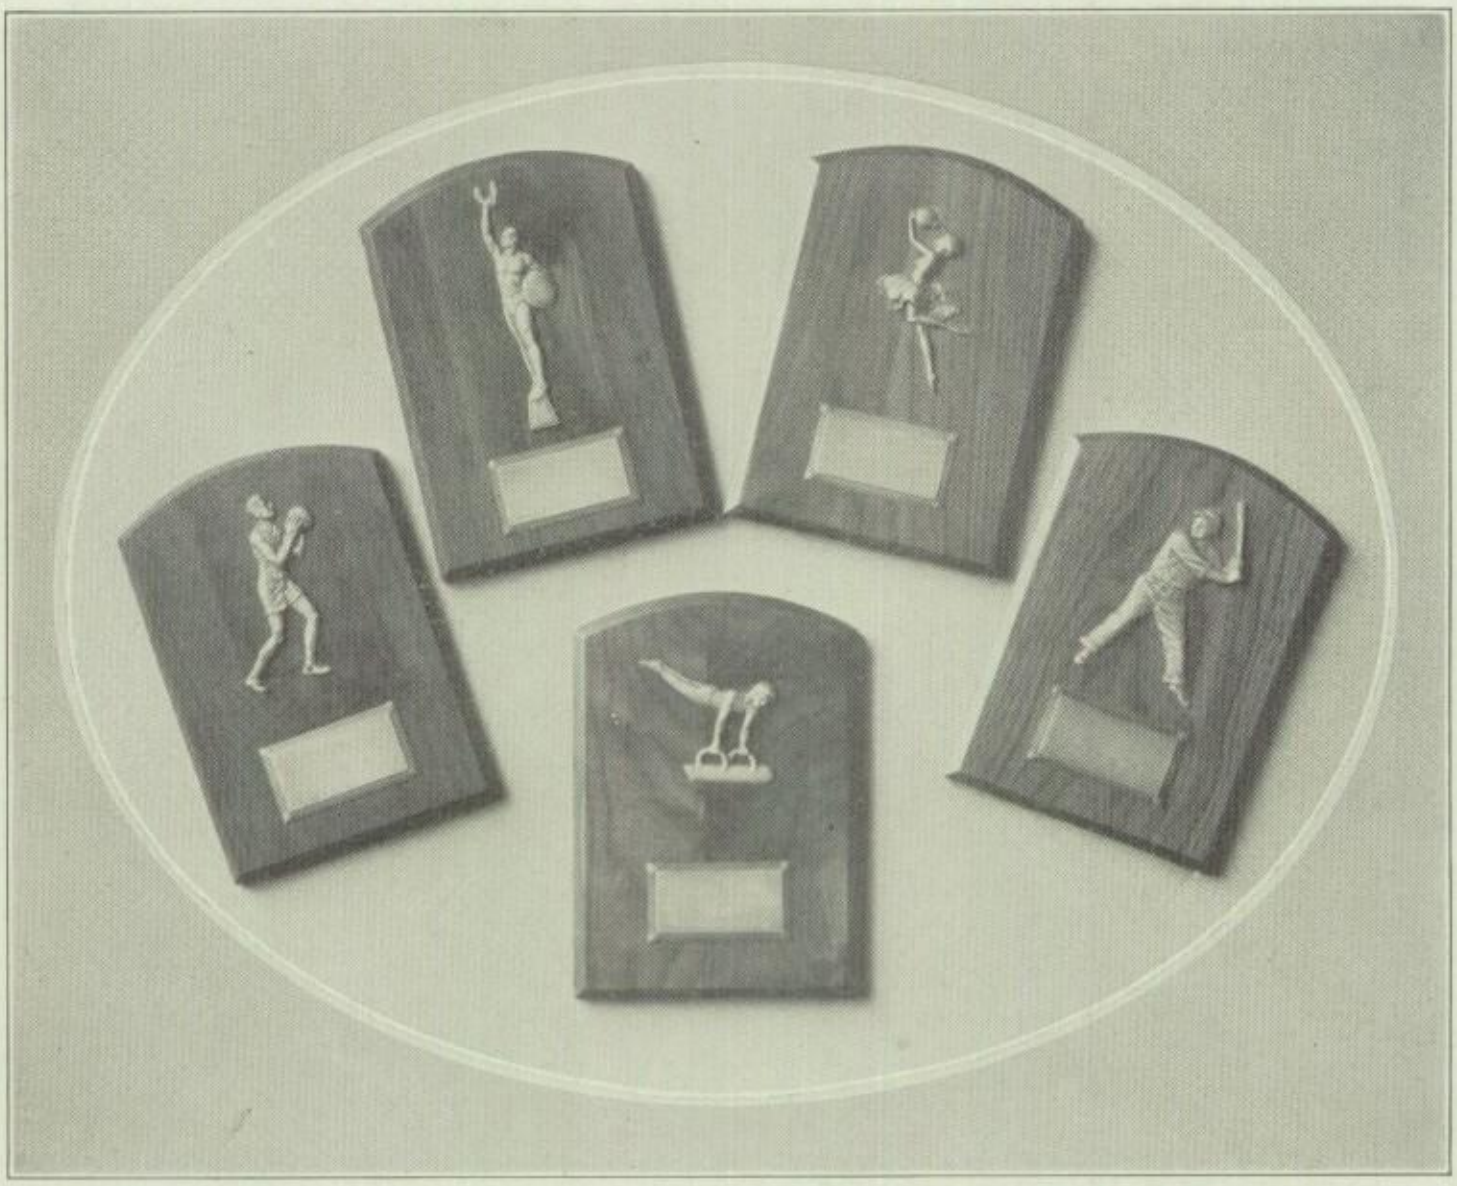


APPARATUS

The Apparatus Team of 1930-31 had a very large turnout and a large percentage of these boys stayed out during the greater part of the season. However, as in every other sport, we find individuals who lose interest or become interested in something else and drop out. The requirements this year were much more difficult than those of the preceding year; but the boys were enthusiastic and stuck through the tough going to win their letters. Eighteen major "K's" were awarded, and one minor "K."

At the end of the season, the team voted on the member who proved himself to be the best all-round gymnast. Harry Kollmyer was voted the best, with Bill Walker running a close second. At the same time the election for the apparatus captain was held. Here again, Bill Walker and Harry Kollmyer ran a close race. However, Bill Walker was elected captain.

The Apparatus Team makes two appearances annually, one being during the Physical Education Exhibit and the other at the "Spice of Life." This year we were fortunate enough to have the Iowa University gym team as our guest for the exhibit, and the exhibition which they presented was very spectacular.

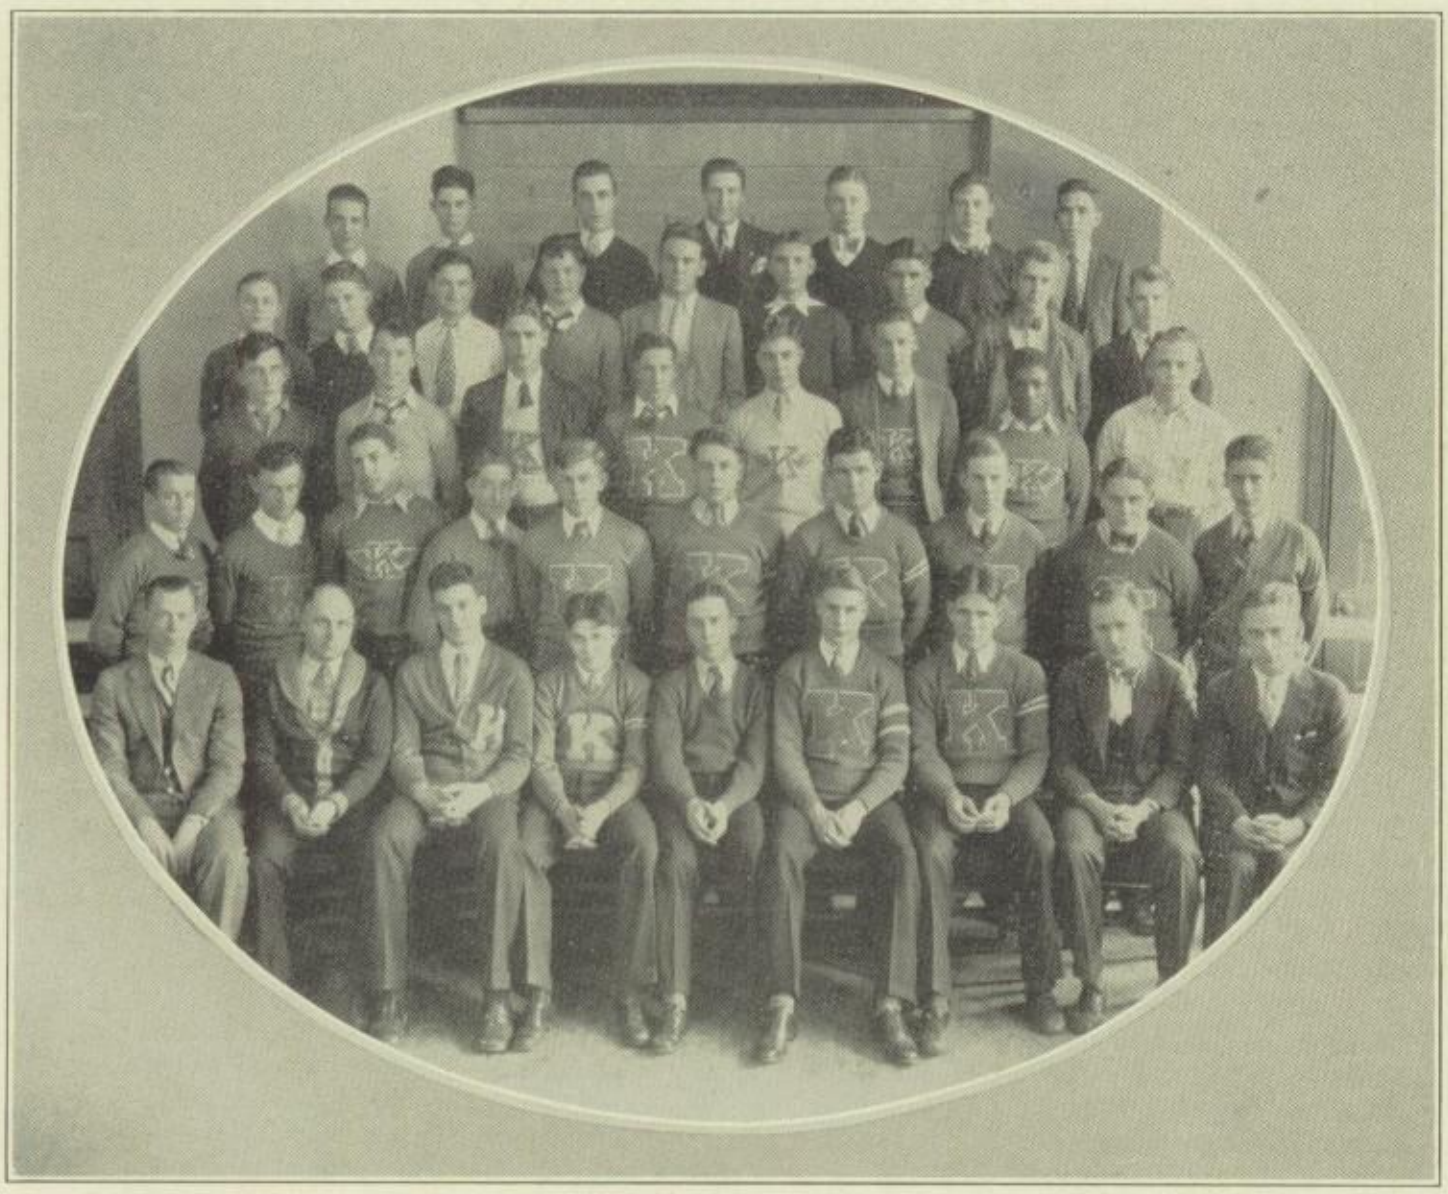


INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

For several years an experiment has been in the making for the development of an all-round intra-mural sports program. This year the jewelers of Keokuk decided to sponsor these events and to provide the trophies and engraving. We are indeed grateful for this help in putting over such a valuable program.

Trophies were awarded for basketball, indoor baseball, apparatus champion, all-round gym champion (boys), and all-round gym champion (girls).

All members of gym classes participated.



THE BOYS' "K" CLUB

President _____ Logan Huiskamp
Vice-President _____ Dan Higby

This organization is composed of boys who have earned a "K" in major sports. The "K" Club this year has a larger membership than in previous years, due to the growing prominence of athletics in the school. The purpose of the club is similar to that of the Girls' "K" Club. The aim is to create and maintain a high standard of sportsmanship, scholarship, and citizenship among the students, to support the functions of the school, and to follow the athletic code of ethics.

GIRLS' K CLUB

President	Beatrice Schwarz
Vice-President	LeCronyn Wood
Secretary	Elizabeth Bisping
Treasurer	Marcia Schneider

It has been customary for the past several years, to award a minor "K" to girls active in G. A. A. There are two honors a girl can win in G. A. A., a 500-point emblem and a 1000-point emblem. Any girl receiving a 1000-point emblem is eligible for membership in the Girls' K Club.

This year, at the end of January, there were seven K's awarded. Last June four juniors and four sophomores received letters. These constitute the nucleus for a revival of the Girls' K Club.

These girls have planned to carry out a program which will include a health campaign and promotion of G. A. A. sports.

The Girls' K Club has adopted this as its motto:

"For when the One Great Scorer comes
To write against your name,
He writes—not that you won or lost—
But how you played the game."

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association is one of the most active organizations in K. H. S. Our purpose is to provide athletic competition for girls; round robin tournaments are played in soccer, volleyball, basketball, and baseball. To qualify for the first team, satisfactory grades, attendance at at least nine practices, and ability to play the game are required. Sportsmanship is especially stressed and girls are urged to participate in the sports for enjoyment and not to go out just to make the team.

Two years ago we started a branch of G. A. A. in Junior High. This was a new adventure and proved very successful. The officers of the Senior High Club governed the Junior High branch, and coaches were appointed by the president to teach the ninth grade girls the sports. Every girl strives for her "K" letter. The requirement is a thousand points. At the five-hundred mark one is awarded a K. G. A. A. emblem. After the 1000-point letter has been won the girl is eligible for a higher award. It has been decided that a pin should be the reward for completing certain requirements.

We hope that our club is attractive to all of those who are not now members and by next year will bring their quarters, entrance points, and themselves, and have great fun in the G. A. A.

The Orchesis is an interpretative dancing organization whose membership consists of girls who are interested in dancing, music, art, and expression. The group devotes itself to original creative work, combining music, poetry, and legends into the movements of the dance.

There are definite dancing requirements in technique which must be passed before one may become a member. Although the Orchesis was primarily an offspring of the Girtls' Athletic Association, it is now a separate organization. The G. A. A. accepts work in Orchesis as credit on its point system.

This club is responsible for the features on the May Fete program which is given each spring. The theme of last year was worked out by Ruth Brinker, former dancing leader.

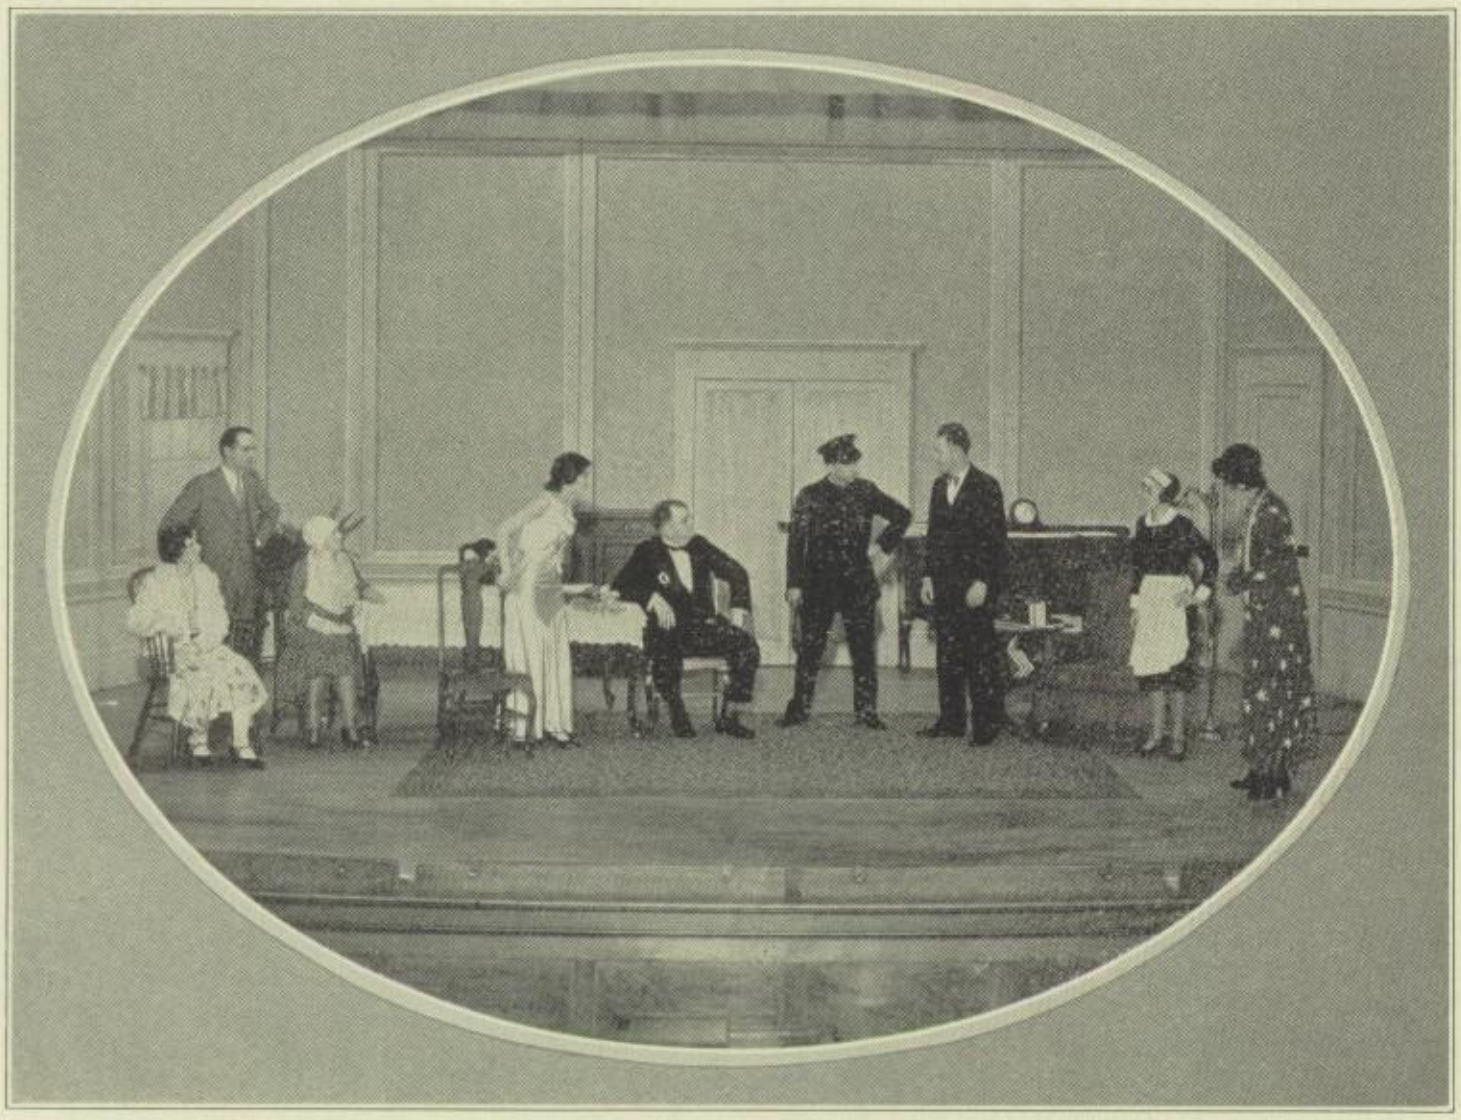
WHOSE LITTLE BRIDE ARE YOU?

On October 30, 1931, the Senior High School presented a three-act comedy under the direction of Miss Refa Conard. This play had a very complicated story — a mix-up of husband hunters, comfortable bachelors and widows. Although they finally achieved their end, there were some many entanglements before the final curtain.

The cast was as follows:

Benjamin Bellows, a retired physician ..... James Schmidt
Algernon Clawhammer, a modest young man ..... Walter Wright
Augustus May, an Englishman ..... Charles Eaton
Simeon Singleton, a gay clubman ..... Clyde Whiteside
George Tobin, age twenty-one, looks less ..... Gene Eyman
Florence Bellows, a young girl ..... Ruth Wollenweber
Mrs. MacEkron, a woman of the world ..... Margaret Boyd
Dolly MacEckron, a small girl ..... Lois Rovane
Maggie Brady, Bellows' maid ..... Lois Fairfax
Mrs. Amelia Tobin, a large country woman ..... Elizabeth Bisping



HER STEP HUSBAND

The annual faculty play under the direction of Miss Refa Conard was successfully staged on April 10th.

The play moves swiftly, there are innumerable mix-ups, and, of course, plenty of comedy. Mary, an incurable romanticist, has an imagination which will bridge any difficulty. Consequently when she receives a telegram saying that her aunt Emily and cousin, Florence Ainslee, who think them rich, are coming, things take place rapidly. The butler turns out to be a crook and so Harvey, Mary's real husband, is transformed into the butler. Aunty arrives and says she must see Harvey to give him the deeds for the ranch which she intends to give their child, Willis. In desperation Jerry, a friend of Mrs. Allen's brother, is called in as the "step husband" to impersonate the real husband.

The cast follows:

Harvey P. Marshall, Mary's permanent husband ..... Mr. Davis
Dr. Gerald Niles (Jerry), Mary's husband pro tem ..... Mr. Wright
Limpy Lannigan, an ex-convict ..... Mr. Johnson
Officer Shea, an affable cop ..... Mr. Hayden
Mary Marshall, an incurable romanticist ..... Miss Conard
Sylvia Allen, Mary's friend ..... Miss Stolt
Miss Emily Paisley, her aunt ..... Miss Simmons
Florence Ainslee, her cousin ..... Miss Maxwell
Stella, her maid ..... Mrs. Wright

CAMPUS DAZE, or CARRIE COMES to COLLEGE

The Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Ruby Simmers, presented its annual operetta on November 12, 1930. The story was about two beautiful young girls whose aunt sent them to college. One had all the money she wanted, the other barely enough to live on. The aunt's experiment worked; she found that money makes no difference in the character of a sweet girl.

The cast was as follows:

Fred	Wesley Banghart
Tommy	Herman Rosencrans
Spencer	Joe Dobson
Porky	John Paul King
Bobby	Bernice Mills
Ma Jenkins	Helen Dorsey
Carrie	Verna Klann
Madame Louise	Elizabeth Bisping
Hiram Goodnow	Carl Dennis
Sol Rosenbaum	Herbert Sohl
Izzie Rosenbaum	Earl Gibson
Governor Thompson	Buell Smith

HIGH SCHOOL POLITICS

Senior Election

The senior election was the culmination of the antagonism between the girls and the boys. The parties were "Skirts" and "Pants." The Skirts won.

	Elected	Defeated
President	Helen Wescott	John Rogers
Vice-President	Marcia Schneider	Walter Wright
Secretary	Beatrice Schwarz	Bob Bartholomew
Treasurer	Betty Koch	Logan Huiskamp

Madge Knies was the campaign manager for the Skirts. Tags and posters were used. For Skirt Day, long, old-fashioned dresses were worn by some of the girls (see snapshot section). The boys unfortunately did not organize until too late.

Junior Election

There were three parties in this class.

	Elected	Defeated
President	Dan Higby	Junior Gallagher
Vice-President	Everett Humble	Elizabeth Rennert
Secretary	Jean Vath	Victor Johnson
Treasurer	Max Thomas	Virginia Maas

Sophomore Election

	Elected	Defeated
President	Theodore Stepman	Alice Van Pappelendam
Vice-President	Vera Mackie	Eileen Darrough
Secretary	Dayle Kavanaugh	John Paul King
Treasurer	William Jones	Marjorie Haggerty

ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

The following assembly programs were arranged by a very efficient assembly program committee composed of Elizabeth Bisping, Chairman, Alvin Haisch, and Kathleen Walker; Miss Loeffler, Advisor.

Televox, the mechanical man of the General Electric Company, was the first to appear before the student body. He demonstrated his human-like knowledge in a most enjoyable exhibition.

A student of photography visited our school. He told us the history of photography and showed us some beautiful copies of early photographs.

December 19 brought the last day of school before the holidays. We were, therefore, entertained by an appropriate Christmas play.

At our next assembly program we listened to an interesting talk by an Indian. He told us about the Indian customs and languages.

George Moriarty, famous big league umpire, visited us and related to us in a most fascinating manner some of his experiences as an umpire.

The first of the Home Room programs was given by Miss Maxwell's room. They presented a health circus, which proved educational as well as entertaining.

George McDevitt, a college student, visited our school soon after. He spoke to the assembly concerning college, and impressed upon our minds that college was not a playhouse.

Miss Loeffler's Home Room was next in line of Home Room entertainments. They gave a vaudeville during which the King of Mirth called forth his court jesters and dancers to entertain us.

"The Suicide Club," made up of members of Mr. Hayden's Home Room, let us into one of their meetings held during the time of the next assembly.

Following this, Miss Craig's Home Room presented the play, "A Cannibal Love Affair."

The next was given by Mr. Megchelsen's Home Room. For their program they gave two comedy sketches. The first was about two radio fans in an asylum; the second about two "hick" detectives.

Mr. Gill's Home Room was represented by Dr. Ried. He gave an interesting little talk and the boys' quartet sang several selections.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Early in the fall, the juniors started a "big parade" of parties that the entire student body has been enjoying this year. There was the usual amount of music, dancing, cards, and checkers.

That affair was promptly followed by the junior-senior dance, which was a great improvement not only because the seniors were there in great numbers, but also because they were entertained by a seven-piece orchestra.

December 19 was the banner social event of the year. That was the night of the "All-School Christmas Party." There were decorations, dancing programs, favors, punch, and, best of all, lots of confetti.

On February 14, St. Valentine brought another wonderful evening for the juniors and seniors.

This semester the separate classes are sponsoring parties to bring about closer acquaintance between the teachers and parents.

All of these affairs have been chaperoned by parents and teachers. The student body is very much indebted to Miss Van Nostrand, who has tried and succeeded in making these parties a huge success.

Thanks also go to the following students who have worked on committees:

Orrin Gray

Have you heard the new herdsman's song?
No, what is it?
"Sweet little Ewe."

I used to love you, but now it's all over.
Oh, is it?
Yes, all over school.

* * *

Absence makes the heart grow fonder of more absences.

* * *

There are jokes that make you laugh,
There are jokes that make you groan,
But the jokes that seem most funny
Are the jokes that are your own.

* * *

Why is Buell Smith limping?
He sat on the spur of the moment.

* * *

Walter Wright wants to know: Who is the best looking boy in school, and why am I?

* * *

Jack Mullikin: Great Scott, Harold, what's the matter now?
Harold Semple: One of my teeth stepped on my tongue.

Yes, you've guessed it!
This is the Humor Department.

* * *

John Rogers: Look, that sign says fifteen minutes parking.
Lois Fairfax: Isn't that the limit!

If looks could kill, I'd assassinate you with a glance.
If looks could kill, it would be suicide for you to use a mirror.

Kind reader, do you find some joke
Ascribed to you, you never spoke,
Or some bad break—
Pray do not say 'tis all untrue,
Pass by the one which points to you
For humor's sake.

* * *

Bill Walker: Why are you making such terrible faces?
Wig: I'm not making faces, I'm chewing gum.

Madge Knies: I usually go to bed between ten and eleven.
Betty Koch: That's too many in one bed.

Jack Conner: What can I do to avoid falling hair?
Doc: Jump out of the way.

Teacher (seizing a little sophomore as he left the room): I believe Satan has a hold on you.
Sophomore (frightened): I—I believe he has all right.

Johnny Dobbs: What do you do for exercise?
Bob Bartholomew: Jump at conclusions.

* * *

Thinking of me?
Oh, was I laughing? I'm sorry.

* * *

Grace: I'm going home.
Marjorie La Porte: May I ask why?
Grace K.: I live there.

* * *

(In Comment room) Is the editor particular?
Yes, she raves if she finds a period upside down.

* * *

"Do you love me?" said the paper bag to the sugar.
"I'm just wrapped up in you," replied the sugar.
"You sweet thing," murmured the paper bag.

There are meters of accent
And meters of tone;
But the best of all meters
Is to meet her alone.

What we'd like to know:
If appetite is found in the mouths of caves?
Are there springs in the ocean's bed?
If you ate a square meal, would the corners hurt?
Can you dig with the ace of spades?
What sort of a vegetable is a policeman's beat?
If a grass widower married a grass widow, would the children be grasshoppers?

Can February March?
No, but April May.
Now don't July.

Gene Eyman: You look good enough to eat.
Lois Rovane: I do eat.

Mary Nelson: I got another zero today.
Agnes Pease: That's nothing.

Alberta Peterson: How can I get fat?
Jane Zimmershied: Buy it at the butcher's.

* * *

You can always tell a Senior,
For he's correctly gowned;
You can always tell a Freshman
By the way he stunts around;
You can always tell a Sophomore
By his married look and such;
You can always tell a Junior,
But you cannot tell him much.

* * *

Oh, the baby has swallowed one of my letters!
That's all right — mush is good for him.

Is this well water?
Does it look sick?

* * *

Paul Stoddart: Have you any fine tooth combs?
Druggist: No, but we have some fine tooth brusnes.

* * *

When the old man failed to help his wife into the auto, she said:
"You aren't as gallant as when I was a gal."
He replied: "Well, you aren't as buoyant as when I was a boy."

First Dog: I hear you have a movie contract.
Second Dog: Yep, I'm getting fifty bones a week.

Method in His Mudness

Mother: Freddy, Aunt Mary will never kiss you with that dirty face.
Freddy: That's what I figured.

Curio

Dick: My father's a Moose, an Elk, a Lion, and an Eagle.
Nick: How much does it cost to see him?

Right — or Right

Cop: Hey, you can't do that!
Driver: Why not?
Cop: Well, a right turn is wrong—the left turn is right. If you wanna turn right turn left and then—aw, go ahead.

Up and Up Again

First Passenger on Atlantic Liner: You know I am a literary person· I have contributed to the Atlantic Monthly.
Second Ditto: You have nothing on me. On this trip I have contributed to the Atlantic daily.

* * *

Baby Talk

Lady: What's your new brother's name?
Little Jane: I don't know yet. We can't understand a word he says.

* * *

Kneaded Dough

Mother: Jimmy, what in the world are you feeding the baby yeast for?
Jimmy: He swallowed my dime and I'm trying to raise money.

Modest

Laura: You sure think you're good looking, don't you?

Jud: Well, no, but what's my opinion against that of hundreds of women?

Say What You Mean

Pat was trying for a job at the blacksmith's.

"Listen," the blacksmith said, "I'm going to bring this horseshoe from the fire and lay it on the anvil; when I nod my head, hit it hard with this hammer."

Pat obeyed his instructions to the letter; the blacksmith never nodded his head again.

Grief

It was the first real snowstorm of the year and the teacher felt it her duty to warn her pupils before she dismissed them.

"Boys and girls should be very careful to avoid colds this time of year," she began solemnly. "I had a dear little brother only seven years old. One day he went out in the snow with his new sled and caught cold. Pneumonia set in and in three days he was dead."

The schoolroom was so quiet you could have heard a pin drop. Then a voice in the back row asked: "Where's his sled?"

* * *

Schoolroom Answers

"Al Smith is a famous scientist."

"There are two parts to a sentence, the subject and the predicament."

"To kill a butterfly, pinch its borax."

"The heart is an infernal organ."

"The teeth are the grind organs."

"Nicotine is such a deadly poison that a drop of it on the tail of a dog will kill a man."

"Geometry teaches how to bisect angels."

"A circle is a round, straight line with a hole in the middle."

"Georgia was founded by people who had been executed."

"The purpose of the skeleton — to hitch bones onto."

"Weapons of the Indians—Bow, arrow, tomahawk, and warwhoop."

* * *

J. I.: Do you like romantic old ruins?

Clattie: If they'd only stoy trying to marry me.

* * *

Burlesque Queens' Paradise

"ISLE OF LOST HIPS."

Mighty Poor Chance

Little Milton came home from Sunday school with a mite box.

"Why do they call it a mite box?" asked Milton.

"Because," chirped in his brother, "you might put something in it and you might not."

* * *

Kind Old Gent: That's a very lifelike snow man you have there, sonny. I almost thought I saw it move.

Little Harry: Maybe you did, Mister; I've got my brother Jimmy inside.

Modern Dictionary

Dad—n. Formerly the head of a family. Modernly the tail. Probably derived from the word doodad, which see.

Doodad—n. Any useless trinket that is always lying around in the way.

Wifey: The cook refuses to get up any earlier than 7:30

Hubby: Ask her if she won't do it a couple of mornings until I can rearrange my business.

* * *

The Him for Her

The Sunday school teacher asked the children to write down the names of their favorite hymns.

One little girl wrote down: "Willie Smith."

Sinful Pride

Jack: Dad, what are your ancestors?

Dad: Well, my boy, I'm one of your ancestors. Your grandfather is another.

Jack: Then why do people brag about them?

Cutting Out the Extras

"I think this scenery is just heavenly."

"Oh, I don't know. Take away the mountains and the lake and it's just like any other place."

* * *

Gassaway: Did you rescue your poor friend who was captured by cannibals?

Blowhard: Unfortunately, when I arrived he had already been scratched off the menu.

* * *

Miss Craig: What is an illiterate?

C. H.: Someone who has sense enough not to read and write.

Thorny Crop

Little Willie had gone to bring the kittens in. His father, hearing a shrill meowing, called out:

"Don't hurt the kittens, Willie!"

"Oh, no," said Willie, "I'm carrying them very carefully by the stems."

* * *

Mrs. Mitcho: Has it broadened the mind of your son to send him to college?

Mrs. Sanders: Oh, yes. He now treats his parents almost as if they are his equals.

* * *

Mr. Davis: If I have talked too long, it's because I haven't my watch with me and there is no clock in this room.

Timid voice from back of the room: There's a calendar behind you.

* * *

G. J.: Did your wife finish the dishes last night before the argument ended?

J. C.: No, there were a few she left to throw at me this morning.

For the Unemployed

Mistress: I don't like to keep complaining, Mary, but I wish you would realize that when the master leaves his shoes outside the bedroom door it means that he wants to have them cleaned.

Maid: Oh, does it? And what if he leaves them outside the front door?

"Did you hear that Dale is earning twenty dollars a night playing his fiddle? Just think—five dollars a string!"

"He ought to learn to play a harp."

* * *

Little Hay: Oh, mother, I've spilt that paper of little tacks in dad's bedroom and I can't find all of them.

Mrs. Hay: Never mind, your father will find the rest when he takes off his shoes to go to bed.

* * *

Orator: If the average man were to look himself squarely in the face and ask himself what he really needed most, what would the answer be?

R. B.: A rubber neck.

Judge: You say your wife attacked you with a death-dealing weapon. What was it?

Victim: A fly swatter.

* * *

Mr. Mullikan: Whew! That licking I gave you tired me all out.

K. O.: Yes, but you can sit down and rest.

* * *

"Don't cry, sonnie; grandpa will play Indian with you."

"B-but y-you won't d-do any good. Y-you're scalped already."

The Bread Which Meets Your Daily Needs

We use the best flours, properly aged, with milk, sugar, malt, salt, and yeast — all of the purest and best — to make our daily bakings. Our loaf has the delicious crust that comes from proper handling in the oven; it has the even, velvety crumb with the bread flavor and aroma at its finest, due to skilled workmanship applied to good materials; it has the proper volume and shape that is attained only by knowledge of one of the most difficult arts. This is at your daily service as the food that gives highest value for its cost, and as the foundation of every home meal.

NATIONAL CARBIDE

For Heating Water Cooking House Lighting

For Ironing & for Poultry Houses Barns, etc.

THE DISCOVERY OF CARBIDE

It is interesting to note that the discovery of Carbide, like so many important chemicals, was the result of an unsuccessful experiment along other lines.

In the year 1894, Mr. Thomas L. Wilson, at Spray, North Carolina, was experimenting to produce Metallic Calcium by fusing lime and coal tar in an electric furnace. The experiment was unsuccessful and the molten mass was dumped in a nearby stream. When the slag-like material entered the water, it was seen that a gas was liberated which investigation showed would burn when ignited. The experiment was repeated and on analysis the residue was seen to be Carbide of Calcium, or Carbide as it is commonly known. The gas which the Carbide liberated on contact with the water was recognized as Acetylene. Thus as a result of accident, commercial production of carbide was made possible.

WHAT CARBIDE IS

It is formed by the fusion at a very high temperature of Calcium or Lime with Carbon, Coke being the most generally used Carbon element. These materials, Lime and Coke, are two of the most heat-resisting substances known. To melt and fuse them into carbide requires the most intense heat—about 5500 degrees Fahrenheit. This high temperature can be produced only in the electric furnace and by the consumption of enormous quantities of electric energy. Consequently electric power may be considered the third essential element in the production of carbide. Carbide bears no resemblance to either lime or coke in physical or chemical properties except in color, which is similar, though somewhat lighter than coke.

It comes from the electric furnace at a white heat in semi-liquid form. As it cools, it hardens into a solid mass as dense and as hard as stone. It is then broken, crushed and screened into sizes suitable for its various purposes; house-lighting, in miners' lamps and industrial generators.

Its appearance, when packed in the drums ready for shipment, is that of a grayish-black crushed stone. It may be kept indefinitely, without deterioration, if the drums are not left open and if protected from air and moisture.

Last year the PURITY Oats Company paid out $160,000 in wages alone, the greater part of which was put in circulation in Keokuk.

Besides this, considerable money was spent in contracts, new equipment, etc., which went into circulation at home.

The PURITY Oats Company is a Keokuk Institution and is being supported by Keokuk people, and in turn is helping support the city.

Every independent merchant in the town (not the chain stores) sells PURITY Oats and almost every Keokuk family that eats Rolled Oats at all uses the PURITY Brand.

Such loyal support is appreciated and the Purity Oats Company is doing the best it knows how to merit it.
